In addition to the above, we could also be adversely affected by complaints, claims or legal actions brought by persons, including before industry forums or sector-specific or other regulatory authorities in the ordinary course of business or otherwise, in relation to our business operations, our intellectual property, our branding or marketing efforts or campaigns or our policies. 2. A substantial portion of our revenues has been dependent upon a limited number of customers. Loss of any of the top customers or any reduction of business from any one of them may affect the financial performance of the Company.

The contribution of top one, top three, top five and top ten customers in total revenue from operations of the Company is given below:

(₹ in Lakh, except percentages)

Particulars	As on June 30, 2025		FY 2024-25		FY 2023-24		FY 2022-23
	Amount	% of Revenue from Operation	Amount	% of Revenue from Operation	Amount	% of Revenue from Operation	Amount	% of Revenue from Operation
Revenue from top 1 (one) customer	243.89	20.12%	753.39	20.51%	689.38	20.12%	839.38	29.20%
Revenue from top 3 (three) customer	570.69	47.08%	1,478.92	40.26%	1,747.61	51.00%	1,684.43	58.60%

Revenue from top 10 (ten) customers	1,039.52	85.76%	2,866.24	78.03%	2,966.72	86.58%	2,502.04	87.04%
-------------------------------------	----------	--------	----------	--------	----------	--------	----------	--------

This reliance on a relatively small group of clients exposes us to client concentration risk. The loss of one or more of these clients, a reduction in the volume of business they conduct with us, or adverse changes in their procurement strategy could materially and adversely affect our revenues and profitability. Factors such as shifts in client preference, increased competition, changes in outsourcing policies, pricing pressure, contract non-renewals, or internal restructuring at the client level could result in a significant reduction or cessation of business from these key clients.

While we strive to maintain long-standing relationships and deliver quality services to retain our major clients, there can be no assurance that we will continue to receive business from them at current levels, or that we will be able to diversify our client base effectively. A failure to do so could result in volatility in our revenue streams and have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

3. We depend on our suppliers for raw materials, parts and other materials. Any interruption in the availability of raw materials, parts and other materials, or any disruption, breakdown or shutdown of our suppliers or any instability of our supplier base could adversely impact our operations.

Our business involves execution-heavy activities such as fabrication, piping, erection, pressure equipment installation, prefabricated structures, and civil works, which require a consistent supply of steel, cement, welding consumables, machinery, and other construction inputs. In most projects, key raw materials such as steel and cement are either provided directly by clients or sourced from vendors nominated by them. In certain cases, we procure materials ourselves, subject to client approval. Instances where we independently identify and finalise vendors are minimal.

This reliance on client-specified vendors or a limited supplier base exposes us to concentration risk. Any delay in supply, inconsistency in quality, or failure by these suppliers to deliver within agreed timelines could affect our ability to complete projects on schedule. External factors such as price fluctuations, logistics constraints, labour unrest, or regulatory changes impacting our suppliers could also disrupt availability and increase procurement costs.

The following table sets forth the percentage of supplies sourced from top one, top five and top ten suppliers in total of Cost of materials consumed of the Company is given below:

(₹ in Lakh, except percentages)

Particulars	As on June 30, 2025		FY 2024-25		FY 2023-24		FY 2022-23
	Amount	% of Cost of materials consumed	Amount	% of Cost of materials consumed	Amount	% of Cost of materials consumed	Amount	% of Cost of materials consumed
Revenue from top 1 (one) suppliers	118.64	24.66%	113.24	30.86%	62.19	12.37%	90.81	26.84%
Revenue from top 3 (three) suppliers	292.81	60.85%	172.95	47.13%	176.66	35.13%	150.84	44.58%
Revenue from top 5 (five) suppliers	369.42	76.77%	214.45	58.44%	246.95	49.10%	197.58	58.40%
Revenue from top 10 (ten) suppliers	447.57	93.01%	294.35	80.21%	333.09	66.23%	243.32	71.92%

Although we have not faced significant supply disruptions in the past, there can be no assurance that our supplier relationships will always remain stable or that alternate sources will be available on favourable terms. Any such disruption could adversely impact our execution timelines, margins, client relationships, and overall financial performance.

4. Our revenues are geographically concentrated, with a significant portion derived from Gujarat, and any adverse development in this region may impact our business.

The state wise revenue generated for the period ended June 30, 2025, and for the financial years ending March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023:

(₹ in Lakh, except percentages)

Name of the State	As on June 30, 2025		FY 2024-25		FY 2023-24		FY 2022-23
	Amount	% of Revenue from Operation	Amount	% of Revenue from Operation	Amount	% of Revenue from Operation	Amount	% of Revenue from Operation

Rajasthan	81.69	6.74%	122.36	3.33%	155.85	4.55%	142.04	4.94%
Odisha	9.02	0.74%	110.80	3.02%	542.49	15.83%	118.52	4.12%
Bihar	33.86	2.79%	81.94	2.23%	89.10	2.60%	106.96	3.72%
Jammu and Kashmir	-	-	-	-	21.00	0.61%	148.91	5.18%
Delhi	-	-	-	-	-	-	35.87	1.25%
Tamil Nadu	-	-	-	-	14.76	0.43%	-	-
Karnataka	-	-	-	-	0.22	0.01%	-	-
Chhattisgarh	-	-	107.27	2.92%	-	-	-	-
Total	1,212.08	100%	3,671.11	100%	3426.54	100%	2,874.60	100%

A substantial share of our revenues is generated from the State of Gujarat, contributing 79.23%, 80.26%, 67.91%, and 62.90% of our total revenues for the period ended June 30, 2025, and the financial years ended March 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively. Within Gujarat, a significant concentration of our business comes from projects located in and around Surat district. Although we have also executed projects in states such as Maharashtra, Haryana, Rajasthan, Odisha, and Bihar, our dependence on Gujarat remains high.

This geographical concentration exposes us to region-specific risks, including local economic slowdowns, political or regulatory changes, natural calamities, labour unrest, or infrastructure disruptions. Any adverse development in Gujarat could disproportionately impact our revenues, profitability, and financial condition.

5. Certain delays, discrepancies and Omissions have been detected in our statutory records, as well as in records related to the submission of returns to the concerned Registrar of Companies.

In the past, there have been some instances of delays, discrepancies and Omissions in our statutory records, as well as in records related to the submission of returns to the concerned Registrar of Companies which includes inadvertently filed incorrect information in the forms filed with the Registrar of Companies. While our Company has taken corrective measures such as to avoid recurrence, we have strengthened our compliance framework by engaging full time qualified company secretary, implementing monitoring systems with due date alerts, conducting periodic internal reviews, and standardising filing processes. These measures are aimed at ensuring timely and accurate compliance in future, there can be no assurance that such lapses will not occur in the future. Any such non-compliance may invite monetary penalties, additional fees or punitive action by regulatory authorities against our Company or its Directors/Officers.

These actions could adversely affect our reputation, divert management's attention, and result in financial outflows. In addition, any punitive action may impair our corporate standing and credibility with regulators, investors, banks, customers and other stakeholders. For our present shareholders, such penalties could impact returns on investment, and for prospective shareholders, they may create uncertainty regarding the robustness of our compliance framework. Consequently, such events could materially and adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, results of operations, reputation, and the interests of our shareholders.

As per relevant provisions of present Companies Act, 2013 all the respective instances that have been provided below:

Sr. No.	Form No.	Date of Event	Due Date of Filing	Actual Filing Date	Delay in Filing in days

In the past, our company has at several instances, delayed in filing GST returns and deposit statutory dues with regards to GST and TDS, ESIC, Professional Tax, PF as a result of which, we have been required to pay the late filing fees along with interest on delayed deposit of due taxes and statutory dues, if any. While our Company has paid the interest, as applicable on delays in payment of these statutory dues and no such dues are outstanding as on date of this Draft Prospectus, we are in the process of improving the administration. In addition, while no actions have been initiated against our Company in relation to the abovementioned delay. While our Company has taken corrective measures such as to avoid recurrence, we have strengthened our compliance framework by engaging full time qualified CFO, implementing monitoring systems with due date alerts, conducting periodic internal reviews, and standardising filing processes.

Further, we cannot assure you that such non-compliances will not occur in the future. Therefore, if the concerned authorities impose monetary penalties on us or take certain punitive actions against our Company or its directors/ officers in relation to the same, our business and financial condition could be adversely affected.

7. Our Company had negative cash flows in the past years, details of which are given below. Sustained negative cash flow could impact our growth and business.

As per our Restated Financial Statements, our Company has recorded negative cash flows from certain activities in previous periods. The details of cash flows from operating, investing, and financing activities for the period ended June 30, 2025, and for the financial years ended March 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 are provided in this Draft Prospectus. For further details, including the reasons for such negative cash flows, please refer to the chapter titled “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” beginning on page 190 of this Draft Prospectus.

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	For the Period ended on June 30, 2025	For the Financial Year ended on
		March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Net Cash Generated/(Used) from Operating Activities	76.77	422.70	(107.12)	7.71
Net Cash Generated/(Used) from Investing Activities	(9.16)	(23.23)	(132.56)	(75.35)
Net Cash Generated/(Used) from Financing Activities	(38.30)	(444.56)	168.75	161.54

Cash flow is an important measure of a company’s ability to meet capital expenditure requirements, repay debt, fund working capital, and support future growth. While fluctuations in cash flow may arise from the timing of project execution, billing, and collections, as well as investment in plant, machinery, and other assets, sustained negative cash flows may limit our ability to finance ongoing operations and expansion without reliance on external funding. Any inability to generate sufficient positive cash flows in the future could materially and adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, and growth prospects.

As mentioned above, both these premises are on short-term lease arrangements that require renewal at regular intervals. There can be no assurance that such leases will be renewed on favourable or commercially acceptable terms, or at all. In the event of non-renewal or termination, our Company may be required to shift its operations to alternative premises, which could result in disruption of business activities, relocation costs, and potential delays in operations. Any such disruption could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

9. We may not be able to protect our trademark “AJWA PROJECTS” and from infringement.

We have applied for the registration of the “AJWA PROJECTS” brand name as a trademark under the Trade Marks Act, 1999 in India. While we actively monitor for potential infringements, there is a risk that third parties may misuse or violate our trademark rights, which could harm our reputation and commercial interests. Additionally, we do not currently have intellectual property rights over our corporate logo which remains unregistered despite our application for registration under class 37 with the Registrar of Trademarks, which is under the process for registration. The absence of a registered logo exposes us to potential misuse, which may negatively impact our business prospects, reputation, and goodwill. We cannot guarantee successful registration of our trademark or logo, nor can we assure that third parties will not infringe upon our intellectual property. Enforcement against such infringements could be expensive, time-consuming, and may result in insufficient remedies for any damages we incur.

For further details, please refer to the “Government and Other Approvals” section on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus.

10. Our ability to attract, retain and manage skilled and unskilled labour is critical to our operations, and any shortage, high attrition or labour unrest could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business operations are labour-intensive and depend significantly on the availability of both skilled and unskilled workforce, including welders, fitters, riggers, operators, and construction workers, for execution of fabrication, erection, piping, civil and maintenance works at project sites. Retaining experienced manpower and ensuring a continuous supply of labour is essential for maintaining project timelines, quality standards, and safety compliance.

Any shortage of labour, whether due to seasonal migration, competition from other industries, higher wage expectations, or lack of adequately skilled personnel, may result in project delays, increased costs, or inability to take up additional assignments. Further, in the event of labour unrest, strikes, or disputes, our operations may face interruptions, which could affect our ability to deliver projects within the stipulated timeframes.

While our Company engages local workers and contract labourers as per project requirements and has not experienced significant labour disputes in the past, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise in the future. Any prolonged shortage, disruption, or increased cost of labour may materially and adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, and results of operations.

11. Our Promoter Group Entities have objects similar to our Company. There are no non-compete agreements between our Company and such Promoter Group Entities. We cannot assure that our Promoter will not favor the interests of such entity over our interest or that the said entities will not expand which may increase our competition and may adversely affect business operations and financial condition of our Company.

Our Promoter Group Entity, M/s M K Enterprise, a proprietorship concern of our Promoter Mrs. Zarinabegum Khurshid Alam Khan, has objects similar to those of our Company. However, this entity has historically carried out operations of a very minimal scale, with turnover constituting less than 6% of our Company’s turnover in the relevant financial year. Further, no significant business activities are currently being undertaken through the said proprietorship, and our Promoter has confirmed that there is no intention to expand operations of this entity going forward.

We have not entered into any non-compete agreement with the said entity, and while we cannot entirely rule out the theoretical possibility of overlap, given its limited operations in the past and absence of future business plans, we believe the risk of competition or conflict of interest is minimal. Accordingly, the said proprietorship is not expected to have any adverse impact on our Company’s business, operations, or financial condition.

12. We have not commissioned an industry report for the disclosures made in the section titled ‘Industry Overview’. These disclosures are based on publicly available data from the internet, which has not been independently verified by us.

We have neither commissioned an industry report, nor sought consent from the quoted website source for the disclosures which need to be made in the section titled “Our Industry” beginning on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus. We have made disclosures in the said chapter on the basis of the relevant industry related data available online for which relevant consents have not been obtained. We have not independently verified data from industry publications contained herein and although we believe these sources to be reliable, we cannot assure you that they are complete or reliable. Such data may also be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled with regard to other countries. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India and its economy are subject to the caveat that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete or unreliable.

These facts and statistics included in “Summary of Offer Document - Summary of our Industry” and “Industry Overview” on page no. Error! Bookmark not defined. and Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, we cannot assure you that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere. We cannot assure you that any assumptions made are correct or will not change and, accordingly, our position in the market may differ from that presented in this Draft Prospectus. Further, the industry data mentioned in this Draft Prospectus or sources from which the data has been collected are not recommendations to invest in our Company. Accordingly, investors should read the industry related disclosure in this Draft Prospectus in this context.

13. If we fail to acquire, renew, or sustain the statutory and regulatory licenses, registrations, and approvals necessary for the operation of our business, it could significantly negatively impact our business, operational results, and financial status.

We require specific statutory and regulatory licenses, registrations, and approvals to conduct our business and execute our projects, some of which are granted for a limited duration and must be renewed periodically. Moreover, in the future, we may also need to acquire new licenses, registrations, and approvals for any proposed operations, including any expansion of our current activities. There is no guarantee that the relevant authorities will renew these licenses, registrations, and approvals promptly or at all. For example, our Company has submitted applications to change its name from ‘Ajwa Projects Private Limited’ to ‘Ajwa Projects Limited’; however, we cannot guarantee that these licenses will be granted or renewed in a timely manner or at all. Additionally, these licenses, registrations, and approvals are subject to various conditions, and our Company cannot assure that it will continuously meet these conditions or demonstrate compliance to the statutory authorities. This may result in the cancellation, revocation, or suspension of the relevant licenses, approvals, and registrations. We may face penalties or experience disruptions in our business activities, any of which could negatively impact our operational results. Furthermore, our Company will be liable for any and all liabilities arising from this non-compliance. If we are unable to renew, maintain, or obtain the necessary registrations or approvals, it could lead to interruptions in our operations and may have a materially adverse effect on our revenues and overall operations. For more information regarding the licenses obtained by our Company and those for which renewal applications have been submitted, please refer to the chapter titled “Government and Other Approvals” starting on page 213 of this Draft Prospectus.

14. We have Offered Equity Shares during the last one year at a price below the Offer Price.

Our Company had Offered equity shares pursuant to bonus shares of 38,00,000 equity shares on December 24, 2024 in the ratio of 19:1 i.e., 19 Bonus Equity Shares for every 1 Equity Shares held, in the last 12 months which is lower than the Offer Price. The Equity Shares allotted to shareholders pursuant to this Offer may be priced significantly higher due to various reasons including better performance by the Company, better economic conditions and passage of time. For further details, see “Capital Structure” on page 63 of this Draft Prospectus.

15. The Average Cost of Acquisition of Equity Shares by Our Promoters and Selling Shareholders May Be Lower Than the Offer Price.

The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters and the Selling Shareholders is lower than the Offer Price. Accordingly, investors participating in the Offer may pay a higher price per Equity Share as compared to the price at which our Promoters and the Selling Shareholders originally acquired their Equity Shares.

Name of Promoter	Type	No. of equity share held	Average cost of acquisition (in Rs.)*
Mr. Mohammad Khursid Alam Khan	Promoter and Selling Shareholder	12,99,780	3.40
Mrs. Zarinabegum Khurshid Alam Khan	Promoter and Selling Shareholder	5,00,000	4.10
Mr. Riyaz Rafiq Padela	Promoter	17,56,200	0.00

The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters have been calculated by considering the amount paid by them to acquire and Shares allotted to them as reduced by amount received on sale of shares i.e., net of sale consideration is divided by net quantity of shares acquired.

**As certified by D G M S & Co., Chartered Accountants, by way of their certificate dated September 20, 2025.*

# Promoter and Selling Shareholder

For further details, including the average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares held by our Promoters and Selling Shareholders, please refer to the section titled “Capital Structure” beginning on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus.

16. We have taken guarantees from Promoters/Directors in relation to debt facilities provided to us.

We have availed secured debt facilities from our bankers that are backed by guarantees provided by our Promoters/Directors. In the event that any of these guarantees are withdrawn or terminated, our lenders may require us to arrange for alternate guarantees, repay the outstanding amounts under such facilities, or may even terminate such facilities.

There can be no assurance that we will be able to arrange alternate guarantees or financing on commercially acceptable terms or within the required time. Any inability to arrange substitute guarantees or repay such borrowings could adversely affect our financial condition, liquidity position, and operations. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Statement of Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 184 of this Draft Prospectus.

17. Our success largely depends upon the knowledge and experience of our Promoters, Directors, our Key Managerial Personnel and our Senior Management. Loss of any of our Promoters, Directors, key managerial personnel and Senior Management or our inability to attract and retain them could adversely affect our business, operations and financial condition.

The growth and success of our Company are significantly dependent on the knowledge, experience and guidance of our Promoters and Directors, and the continued services of our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management. Their expertise is critical in developing business strategies, supervising project execution, maintaining client relationships, and addressing operational challenges. We believe that the skills and contributions of these individuals are valuable to the functioning and future prospects of our Company.

While we have not faced a high rate of attrition among our senior leadership or key managerial staff in the past, there can be no assurance that such attrition will not occur in the future. Any inability to retain our experienced personnel, or to attract qualified replacements with equivalent industry knowledge, could result in disruptions to our operations, delays in execution, and adverse impacts on our financial performance. Further, the loss of the services of our Promoters or any of our senior executives could weaken our ability to expand and manage our business effectively.

For further details on our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Management” on page 158 of this Draft Prospectus.

18. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest.

In the ordinary course of our business, we enter into and will continue to enter into transactions with related parties with our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Promoter Group. While we believe that all such transactions have been conducted on an arm’s length basis, we cannot assure you that we might have obtained more favourable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties.

While we will conduct all related party transactions post listing of the Equity Shares subject to the Board’s or Audit Committee’s or Shareholders’ approval, as applicable, and in compliance with the provisions of Companies Act, 2013, as amended, provisions of the SEBI Listing Regulations and other applicable law, such related party transactions may potentially involve conflicts of interest, which may be detrimental to our Company and may have an adverse impact on our Company, and which our Company will endeavour to duly address as and when they may arise. However, we cannot assure you that any such future transactions, individually or in the aggregate, may not involve potential conflicts of interest which will not have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our related party transactions for the period ended June 30, 2025 and for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023 which included loans received, loan repayments. For details on our related party transactions for the period ended June 30, 2025 and for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023 see “Restated Financial Statement - Related Party Transactions” on page 180 under the chapter titled “Restated Financial Statement” on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus.

Note-All related party transactions are carried out at Arm’s Length Price (ALP). Further, list of the related parties and all related party transactions, are disclosure under AS 18 and / or as covered under section 188(2) of the Companies Act, 2013 (as amended), SEBI (LODR) Regulations and other statutory compliances. However, there have been no conflicts of interest among our equity shareholders in relation to the related party transactions entered into in the past.

19. We are exposed to counterparty credit risk and any delay in receiving payments or non-receipt of payments may adversely impact our results of operations.

Our business model is execution-driven, with payments often linked to project milestones, certifications, or extended credit terms agreed with clients. This exposes us to counterparty credit risk in the form of delayed payments or potential defaults.

Given the scale and duration of our contracts, even a single large delay or non-receipt of payment could strain our cash flows, disrupt our working capital cycle, and adversely affect profitability.

Further, our receivables are concentrated in industrial and infrastructure sectors, which are themselves exposed to macroeconomic and sector-specific risks such as liquidity shortages, delays in government approvals, or funding constraints. These factors may cause clients to extend payment timelines, renegotiate terms, or in adverse situations, fail to meet their obligations.

While we follow internal checks for creditworthiness and maintain active monitoring of outstanding receivables, such measures cannot fully eliminate risks. Although we have not faced material payment defaults in the past, there can be no assurance that all clients will continue to honour their commitments in a timely manner. Any delay or default in receivables in the future could materially impact our cash flows, financial condition, and results of operations.

20. We may not be awarded new projects or existing orders may be delayed, modified, or cancelled, which could adversely affect our business and financial performance

Projects in our industry are typically awarded after a competitive bidding process and satisfaction of prescribed technical and financial pre-qualification criteria. While our past track record, execution capabilities, service quality, safety standards, and financial resources are important factors in securing orders, there is no assurance that we will continue to meet such criteria for future projects. Further, once bidders qualify technically, contracts are usually awarded primarily on the basis of price competitiveness. Preparing and submitting bids involves time and cost, which are not recoverable if orders are not secured.

In addition, the award and execution of projects are subject to factors beyond our control, including budgetary constraints, policy changes, election cycles, delays in obtaining statutory approvals, right-of-way permissions, and environmental or civil clearances. Even after an order is awarded, these factors may result in deferment, modification, or termination of contracts. While we have not faced such cancellations in the past, there can be no assurance that such situations will not arise in the future. Any delay or cancellation of orders could adversely affect our revenues, cash flows, and profitability.

21. Our inability to manage growth could disrupt our business and reduce our profitability.

Our Company's strategy is to pursue sustained growth through expansion of project scale, geographical reach, and service offerings across fabrication, erection, piping, pressure equipment, prefabricated structures, maintenance services, and civil construction. While this growth provides opportunities, it also places increasing demands on our management, operational resources, financial controls, and workforce. Managing multiple projects across diverse sectors and geographies requires robust coordination, strong internal processes, and the ability to deploy manpower, raw materials, and equipment efficiently.

Any rapid or unbalanced expansion may lead to challenges in maintaining financial discipline, strengthening project controls, retaining skilled manpower, and ensuring consistent safety and quality standards across sites. If we are unable to successfully align our internal systems and resources with the pace of growth, it could result in execution delays, increased costs, strain on working capital, and potential impact on client satisfaction. This, in turn, could adversely affect our revenues, margins, and long-term business prospects.

22. We could be harmed by employee or contractor/operator misconduct, negligence, fraud or errors which may be difficult to prevent or detect—and any such incidents could materially and adversely affect our reputation, business operations, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our business involves execution of complex projects across multiple sites, requiring significant reliance on our employees, skilled workforce, and contract labour engaged in fabrication, erection, piping, civil construction, and maintenance services. Instances of misconduct or negligence—such as mishandling of materials, pilferage of consumables, misuse of equipment, deviation from safety protocols, or non-compliance with client requirements could expose us to financial losses, contractual penalties, reputational harm, and potential disputes with customers.

Further, misappropriation of raw materials, fraudulent billing, or errors in quality checks and documentation by employees, contractors, or suppliers could lead to cost escalations, delays, or claims from clients. Since a portion of our workforce is deployed on client premises, any incident such as equipment misuse, accident, or damage to client property could result in indemnity claims, blacklisting, or civil/criminal liabilities. While we have internal controls such as induction programs, standard operating procedures, stage-wise quality inspections, and supervision by experienced engineers, these measures may not always be sufficient to prevent or detect misconduct or errors, particularly given the decentralized and project-based nature of our operations.

Although we have not faced any such incidents in the past, there can be no assurance that such risks will not arise in the future, and any occurrence could materially and adversely impact our profitability, results of operations, and growth prospects.

23. We may be subject to unionization, strikes, work stoppage or increased labour costs, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business model is manpower-intensive and depends significantly on the availability of skilled, semi-skilled, and contract labour across multiple project sites. Smooth execution of projects requires maintaining harmonious relations with our workforce as well as with contract staff deployed on-site. While we have not faced any incidents of strikes, lockouts, or labour unrest in the past three years, there can be no assurance that such disruptions will not occur in the future.

Factors such as increased demand for skilled manpower, rising wage levels, or disagreements relating to working conditions could result in higher employee costs or temporary stoppages of work. Further, our Company is subject to various labour laws and regulations that safeguard employee rights and impose financial obligations in cases such as retrenchment or workplace accidents. Any inability to manage such obligations or to resolve disputes in a timely manner may result in project delays, cost escalations, or reputational risks.

Any prolonged disruption due to labour unrest, shortages, or higher attrition could adversely affect our ability to execute ongoing projects, which in turn could materially impact our revenues, profitability, and overall financial condition.

24. We have not declared any dividends till Financial Year 2024-25 and we cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends on our Equity Shares in the future.

We have not declared dividends on our Equity Shares for the period since incorporation till Financial Year 2024-25. Our future ability to pay dividends will depend on various factors, including our earnings, financial health, cash flows, and working capital needs. We cannot guarantee that we will generate sufficient income to cover operating expenses and distribute dividends to shareholders. Our dividend policy will also be influenced by our expansion plans and future capital requirements. There is a possibility that we may retain all future earnings for business growth, resulting in no dividends being declared in the near or medium term. Any future decision to declare and pay dividends will be at the discretion of our Board, taking into consideration our financial condition, business prospects, cash needs, and other factors. As a result, realisation of gains on shareholder's investments may largely depend on the appreciation of the price of our Equity Shares, though there is no assurance that our shares will appreciate in value. For more information on our dividend history, please refer to the section titled "Dividend Policy" on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus.

25. Our indebtedness, including various conditions and restrictive covenants imposed on us under our financing agreements and could adversely affect our ability to grow our business or react to changes in our business environment.

As of June 30, 2025, we had total outstanding financial indebtedness of ₹ 797.18 Lakhs, comprising both long-term and short-term borrowings. Our financing agreements contain certain conditions and restrictive covenants, which vary depending on the requirements of the lenders and the terms negotiated in each facility. These covenants may restrict or delay certain actions or initiatives that we may propose to undertake, including incurring additional indebtedness, making investments, creating security over assets, or undertaking corporate restructuring. Failure to comply with such covenants or to obtain necessary consents could adversely impact our business operations and financial flexibility.

While we have received all relevant consents required for the purposes of this Offer and have complied with applicable covenants, there can be no assurance that we will continue to remain compliant in the future. Although we have not defaulted on any covenants during the past three financial years, any failure to comply with the terms of our financing agreements could result in the lenders declaring an event of default, accelerating repayment obligations, or enforcing security. Further, a default under one agreement may also trigger cross-default provisions in other agreements, which could, individually or in the aggregate, materially and adversely affect our financial condition and operations.

In addition, a portion of our borrowings are subject to variable interest rates, which are linked to benchmark rates such as MCLR or other base rates determined by the RBI, along with a contractually agreed spread. Any increase in interest rates, adverse changes in our credit rating, or tightening of monetary policy by the Government of India could increase our cost of borrowing. Rising interest costs or restrictions on our ability to raise additional capital may materially and adversely impact our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

For further details regarding our borrowings, please refer to the chapter titled "Statement of Financial Indebtedness" on 184 of this Draft Prospectus.

26. Our Company requires adequate working capital for execution of projects, and any shortfall in meeting these requirements may adversely affect our operations and financial performance.

Our business model is execution-driven and requires timely deployment of manpower, raw materials, fabrication resources, equipment, and logistics across multiple sites. This necessitates a reasonable level of working capital to ensure uninterrupted progress of projects and adherence to committed timelines. The requirement is primarily driven by receivable cycles, procurement schedules, and project execution timelines.

While our working capital cycle has remained in the range of 59 to 120 days over the last three years, any delay in client payments, mismatch in receivable realisations, or unanticipated increase in project outflows could create temporary liquidity pressures. In such instances, we may be required to increase reliance on external borrowings, which may lead to higher finance costs and adversely impact profitability.

Further, as we continue to scale our operations and take on larger and more complex assignments, our working capital requirements may increase proportionately. Any inability to arrange sufficient funds in a timely and cost-effective manner could adversely affect our ability to execute projects, maintain client confidence, and sustain our growth momentum.

27. The objects of the Offer have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution and we cannot assure you that the objects of the Offer will be achieved within the expected time frame, or at all, and any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders' approval.

We intend to utilise the Net Proceeds of the Offer for the purposes set out in the section titled "Objects of the Offer" beginning on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus. Our funding requirements and the proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on management estimates, prevailing conditions, and internal assessments of our business requirements.

These estimates have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution and may be subject to change depending on external factors, market dynamics, costs, and strategic considerations.

Consequently, our actual requirements may differ from those envisaged, which may require us to reschedule or reallocate the deployment of funds. In case of an increase in project costs or a shortfall in funds, we may be required to meet such requirements through internal accruals, additional debt or equity financing, the availability and terms of which cannot be assured. Any such variations may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Further, pursuant to Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, any variation in the Objects of the Offer requires the approval of shareholders by way of a special resolution, and dissenting shareholders will be provided an exit opportunity by our Promoters or controlling shareholders in accordance with applicable law. Accordingly, investors in the Equity Shares will be relying on the judgment of our management regarding the deployment of the Net Proceeds, and there can be no assurance that such deployment will be beneficial to our Company.

28. Our Company will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

The Offer comprises a Fresh Issue of Equity Shares by our Company and an Offer for Sale of Equity Shares by the Selling Shareholders. The net proceeds from the Offer for Sale, after deducting the applicable portion of Offer expenses borne by them, shall be received by the respective Selling Shareholders, and our Company will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

Except for (a) listing fees, which will be borne by our Company, and (b) fees and expenses relating to the legal counsel to the Selling Shareholders, which will be borne by the respective Selling Shareholders, all other costs, charges, fees, and expenses in relation to the Offer, including but not limited to advertising and marketing expenses, printing, research expenses, roadshows, accommodation and travel, stamp duty, transfer and registration charges, execution and enforcement costs for Offer-related agreements, fees paid to intermediaries and LM, legal counsel to the Company and LM, auditors, advisors, regulatory fees, and other third-party costs, shall be shared between our Company and the Selling Shareholders in accordance with applicable law.

29. Some of our Directors (including our Promoters) and Key Management Personnel & Senior Management are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company, in addition to normal remuneration, other benefits and reimbursement of expenses.

Some of our Directors (including our Promoters), Key Managerial Personnel are interested in our Company to the extent of their respective shareholding and dividend entitlements, in addition to the remuneration, benefits, and reimbursement of expenses payable to them in accordance with applicable laws. As a result, they may exercise significant influence over matters requiring shareholder or Board approval, including decisions relating to the composition of our Board of Directors and matters requiring simple or special majority voting. Such interests may give rise to potential conflicts with those of our other shareholders, and there can be no assurance that such conflicts, if they arise, will be resolved in a manner favourable to our Company. Any such circumstances could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

For further details, please refer to the chapters titled “Our Management” beginning on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus.

30. We intend to utilize a portion of the Net Proceeds for funding our capital expenditure requirements. We are yet to place orders 100% of the capital expenditure, as specified in the Objects of the Offer chapter. Any delay in procurement of such capital expenditure may delay the schedule of implementation and may also lead to increase in cost of these capital expenditure, further affecting our revenue and profitability.

We are yet to place orders for 100% capital expenditure worth upto Rs. 678.80 Lakhs as detailed in the “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus. We have not entered into any definitive agreements to utilize the Net Proceeds for this object of the Offer and have relied on the quotations received from third parties for estimation of the cost. While we have obtained quotations from various vendors in relation to such capital expenditure, most of these quotations are valid for a certain period of time and may be subject to revisions, and other commercial and technical factors. We cannot assure you that we will be able to undertake such capital expenditure within the cost indicated by such quotations or that there will not be cost escalations. Delay in procurement of the same can cause time and cost overrun in the implementation of our proposed expansion and can also compel us to buy the same at a higher price, thus causing the budgeted cost to vary. As a result, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

31. The rate of interest for the loans obtained by us from the banks and Financial Institutions is variable and any increase in interest rates may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Our Company is susceptible to changes in interest rates and the risks arising there from. Our sanction letters provide for interest at variable rates with a provision for the periodic resetting of interest rates. Further the lenders are entitled to change the applicable rate of interest, which is a combination of a base rate that depends upon the policies of the RBI and a contractually agreed spread, and in the event of an adverse change in our Company’s credit risk rating. For further details of interest payable on our borrowings, please refer to the chapter titled “Statement of Financial Indebtedness” on page no. 184 of this Draft Prospectus. Further, in recent years, the Government of India has taken measures to control inflation, which have included tightening the monetary policy by raising interest rates. As such, any increase in interest rates may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

32. None of our directors have prior experience serving as directors in any other listed company in India.

While our Board members bring significant expertise in their respective fields, none of them have prior experience serving as directors in any other listed company in India. This lack of experience may present challenges in aligning with the best practices of corporate governance and effectively implementing these norms. Additionally, this could influence the company's credibility and reputation among investors and other key stakeholders. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Management” on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of the Draft Prospectus.

33. Any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders’ approval.

Our Company intends to use Net Proceeds raised pursuant to the Fresh Issue in the manner set out in the section titled “Objects of the Offer” on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus. In accordance with Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds as disclosed in this Draft Prospectus without obtaining the approval of shareholders of our Company through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the approval of the shareholders of our Company in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such approval of the shareholders of our Company may adversely affect our business or operations. Further, pursuant to Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, any variation in the Objects of the Offer requires the approval of shareholders by way of a special resolution, and dissenting shareholders will be provided an exit opportunity by our Promoters or controlling shareholders in accordance with applicable law.

In light of these factors, we may not be able to undertake variation of Objects of the Offer to use any unutilized proceeds of the Offer, if any, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. This may restrict our Company's ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition by re-deploying the unutilized portion of Net Proceeds, if any, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

34. A Portion of the Net Proceeds is Proposed to be Utilised for General Corporate Purposes, the Exact Deployment of Which is at the Discretion of Our Management.

A portion of the Net Proceeds of the Offer, constituting [●]% of the total Offer Proceeds, is proposed to be utilised for general corporate purposes, as permitted under applicable laws. The deployment of funds under this head is not subject to any specific appraisal and will be at the discretion of our management, in accordance with the policies of our Board and applicable law. We cannot assure you that the proceeds earmarked for general corporate purposes will be applied in a manner that results in an increase in the value of your investment or improves our financial condition. Any ineffective utilisation of such funds may adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

35. Our Promoters and the Promoter Group will jointly continue to retain majority shareholding in our Company after the Offer, which will allow them to determine the outcome of the matters requiring the approval of shareholders.

Post this Offer, our Promoters and Promoter Group will collectively own majority of our equity share capital. As a result, our Promoter, together with the members of the Promoter Group, will continue to exercise a significant degree of influence over Company and will be able to control the outcome of any proposal that can be approved by a majority shareholder vote, including, the election of members to our Board, in accordance with the Companies Act, 2013 and our Articles of Association. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of our Company.

Additionally, our Promoters will continue to have the ability to cause us to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with, our interests or the interests of some or all of our creditors or other shareholders, and we cannot assure you that such actions will not have an adverse effect on our future financial performance or the price of our Equity Shares.

For further details on the shareholding of our promoter and promoter group, please refer to the chapters titled “Capital Structure – Following is the details of the aggregate shareholding of Our Promoter and Promoter Group before and after the Offer is set forth below ” beginning on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus.

36. The schedule of our estimated deployment of Net Proceeds is subject to inherent uncertainties.

The fund requirement and deployment are based on internal management estimates and our Company's current business plan and are subject to change in light of changes in external circumstances or costs, other financial conditions, business, or strategy. These estimates have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. In view of the dynamic nature of the sector and specifically that of our business, we may have to revise our expenditure and fund requirements as a result of variations in cost estimates, and external factors that may not be within the control of our management. This may entail rescheduling and revising the planned expenditures and fund requirements and increasing or decreasing expenditures for a particular purpose at the discretion of our management, within the objects.

For further details, refer to “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page Error! Bookmark not defined. in this Draft Prospectus.

37. There are restrictions on daily, weekly and monthly price movement of the equity shares, which may adversely affect the shareholder's ability to sell their shares at desired price at a particular point in time.

Once our Equity Shares are listed, we would be subject to circuit breakers imposed by the stock exchange, which restrict transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the broader index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI. The stock exchange sets the percentage limits on these circuit breakers based on the historical volatility of our Equity Shares' price and trading volume. However, the stock exchange does not disclose the current percentage limit of the circuit breaker and may change it without notice. Consequently, these limits can restrict both upward and downward price movements. As a result, we cannot guarantee your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price you may obtain for them at any given time.

38. *We cannot assure you that our equity shares will be listed on the SME platform of BSE in a timely manner or at all, which may restrict your ability to dispose of the equity shares.

Though we shall make best of our efforts to comply with all applicable regulatory, financial and operational requirements for getting the equity shares proposed to be offered through this Draft Prospectus listed on SME platform of BSE in a time bound manner, yet on account of any change in applicable laws, economic conditions and/or any other reason/s beyond our control, the said shares may not get listed on the SME platform of BSE Limited in a timely manner or at all, which may restrict your ability to dispose of the equity shares. However, even in such circumstances, the company shall stay fully committed to pay such interest and/or refund the full application amount, as may be required in accordance with the applicable regulatory directives.

39. *The requirements of being a public listed company may strain our resources and impose additional obligations.

As a publicly listed company, we will face increased scrutiny from shareholders, regulators, and the public, leading to higher legal, accounting, and corporate governance expenses. Compliance with listing requirements, including filing unaudited financial results on a half-yearly basis, will demand significant resources and oversight from management. This additional burden may divert management's focus from other business activities, potentially affecting our overall performance. There is no assurance that we will consistently meet our reporting obligations or promptly determine and report changes to our operations like other listed companies. Furthermore, we may need to expand our management team and hire additional staff with public company experience, which may not be feasible within the required timeframe. Failure to do so could negatively affect our profits and reputation.

40. *Pursuant to listing of the Equity Shares, we may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures like Additional Surveillance Measure (ASM) and Graded Surveillance Measures (GSM) by the Stock Exchanges in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interest of investors.

On listing, we may be subject to general market conditions which may include significant price and volume fluctuations. The price of our Equity Shares may also fluctuate after the Offer due to several factors such as volatility in the Indian and global securities market, our profitability and performance, performance of our competitors, changes in the estimates of our performance or any other political or economic factor. The occurrence of any of the abovementioned factors may lead to us triggering the parameters listed by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges for placing securities under the GSM or ASM framework such as net worth and net fixed assets of securities, high low variation in securities, client concentration and close to close price variation. In the event our Equity Shares are covered under such surveillance measures implemented by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges, we may be subject to certain additional restrictions in relation to trading of our Equity Shares such as limiting trading frequency (for example, trading either allowed once in a week or a month) or freezing of price on upper side of trading which may have an adverse effect on the market price of our Equity Shares or may in general cause disruptions in the development of an active trading market for our Equity Shares.

41. *After this Offer, the price of the Equity Shares may be subject to change, or an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchange may fluctuate as a result of the factors, including

- Volatility in the Indian and global capital market;
- Company's results of operations and financial performance;
- Performance of Company's competitors,
- Media reports on Company or pertaining to our Industry;
- Changes in our estimates of performance or recommendations by financial analysts;
- Significant developments in India's economic and fiscal policies; and
- Significant developments in India's environmental regulations.

Current valuations may not be sustainable in the future and may also not be reflective of future valuations for our industry and our Company. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Offer or that the price at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the price at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequent to this Offer.

42. *There are restrictions on daily movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell Equity Shares or the price at which Equity Shares can be sold at a particular point in time.

Our listed Equity Shares will be subject to a daily "circuit breaker" imposed on listed companies by the Stock Exchanges, which does not allow transactions beyond certain volatility in the trading price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on the Equity Shares' circuit breaker will be set by the Stock Exchanges based on historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The Stock Exchanges are not required to inform our Company of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker, and they may change the limit without our knowledge. This circuit breaker would effectively limit the upward and downward movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, there can be no assurance regarding the ability of shareholders to sell Equity Shares or the price at which shareholders may be able to sell their Equity Shares.

43. *The Offer price of our Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Offer and the market price of our Equity Shares may decline below the Offer price and you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price.

The Offer Price of our Equity Shares has been determined by book building method. This price is based on numerous factors (For further information, refer the chapter titled "Basis of Offer Price" on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus) and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Offer. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Offer, and may decline below the Offer Price. Among the factors that affect our share price including but not limited to the following:

- Half yearly variations in the rate of growth of our financial indicators, such as earnings per share, net income and revenues;
- Changes in revenue or earnings estimates or publication of research reports by analysts;
- Speculation in the press or investment community;
- General market conditions; and
- Domestic and international economic, legal and regulatory factors unrelated to our performance.

44. *There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Offer will be listed on the SME Platform of BSE in a timely manner, or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Offer will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuing of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the SME Platform of BSE. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

45. *The ability of Indian companies to raise foreign capital may be constrained by Indian law.

As an Indian Company, we are subject to exchange controls that regulate borrowing in foreign currencies, including those specified under FEMA. Such regulatory restrictions limit our financing sources for our projects under development and hence could constrain our ability to obtain financing on competitive terms and refinance existing indebtedness. In addition, we cannot assure you that the required approvals will be granted to us without onerous conditions, or at all. Limitations on foreign debt may adversely affect our business growth, results of operations and financial condition.

46. *There is no existing market for our Equity Shares, and we do not know if one will develop. Our stock price may be highly volatile after the Offer and, as a result, you could lose a significant portion or all of your investment.

There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges in a timely manner or at all and any trading closures at the Stock Exchanges may adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, we cannot predict the extent to which investor interest will lead to the development of an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges or how liquid that market will become. If an active market does not develop, you may experience difficulty selling the Equity Shares that you purchased. The Offer Price is not indicative of prices that will prevail in the open market following the Offer. Consequently, you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at prices equal to or greater than the Offer Price. The market price of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges may fluctuate after listing as a result of several factors, including the following:

- a. Volatility in the Indian and other Global Securities Markets;
- b. The performance of the Indian and Global Economy;
- c. Risks relating to our business and industry, including those discussed in this Draft Prospectus;
- d. Strategic actions by us or our competitors;
- e. Investor perception of the investment opportunity associated with our future performance;

- f. Adverse media reports about us or our shareholders;
- g. Future sales of the Equity Shares;
- h. Variations in our half-yearly results of operations;
- i. Differences between our actual financial and operating results and those expected by investors and analysts;
- j. Our future expansion plans;
- k. Perceptions about the performance of companies engaged in industrial capital goods sector generally;
- l. Perception in the market about investments in the Industrial sector capital goods;
- m. Significant developments in the regulation of the trading and distribution industry in our key trade locations;
- n. Changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts;
- o. Significant developments in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies; and
- p. Significant developments in India's fiscal and environmental regulations.

There has been significant volatility in the Indian stock markets in the recent past, and our Equity Share Price could fluctuate significantly as a result of market volatility. A decrease in the market price of the Equity Shares could cause you to lose some or all of your investment.

47. Any future issuance of Equity Shares may dilute your shareholdings, and sale of the Equity Shares by our major shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

Any future equity issuances by our Company may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. In addition, any sale of substantial Equity Shares in the public market after the completion of this Offer, including by our major shareholders, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares and could significantly impair our future ability to raise capital through offerings of the Equity Shares. We cannot predict what effect, if any, market sales of the Equity Shares held by the major shareholders of our Company or the availability of these Equity Shares for future sale will have on the market price of our Equity Shares.

48. There is no monitoring agency appointed by Our Company to monitor the utilization of the Offer proceeds.

As per SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2018, as amended, appointment of monitoring agency is required only for Offer size above ₹ 50 crores. Hence, we have not appointed any monitoring agency to monitor the utilization of Offer proceeds. However, the audit committee of our Board will monitor the utilization of Offer proceeds in terms of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015. Further, our Company shall inform about material deviations in the utilization of Offer proceeds to the stock exchange and shall also simultaneously make the material deviations / adverse comments of the audit committee public.

3. You will not be able to sell immediately on Indian Stock Exchanges any of the Equity Shares you purchase in the Offer until the Offer receives appropriate trading permissions.

before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading on stock exchange. We cannot assure you that the Equity Shares will be credited to investor's demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this Draft Prospectus. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of the Equity Shares. In accordance with section 40 of the Companies Act, if the permission of listing the Equity Shares is denied by the stock exchanges, we are required to refund all monies collected to investors.

4. *We are subject to risks arising from interest rate fluctuations, which could adversely impact our business, financial condition and operating results.

Changes in interest rates could significantly affect our financial condition and results of operations. If the interest rates for future borrowings increase significantly, our cost of servicing such debt will increase. This may negatively impact our results of operations, planned capital expenditures and cash flows.

5. *Taxes and other levies imposed by the Government of India or other State Governments, as well as other financial policies and regulations, may have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Taxes and other levies imposed by the Central or State Governments in India that impact our industry include customs duties, excise duties, sales tax, income tax and other taxes, duties or surcharges introduced on a permanent or temporary basis from time to time. There can be no assurance that these tax rates/slab will continue in the future. Further, with the Introduction of the Goods and Services Act, tax rates and its implication may have material impact on our services. Any changes in these tax rates/slabs could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

6. *Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

7. *Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price.

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, change in regulatory framework, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends, terrorist threats and activities, worldwide military and domestic disturbances and conflicts, and other matters that influence consumer confidence, spending and tourism.

8. *Civil disturbances, extremities of weather, regional conflicts and other political instability may have adverse effects on our operations and financial performance.

Certain events that are beyond our control such as earthquake, fire, floods and similar natural calamities may cause interruption in the business undertaken by us. 9. *Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any major hostilities involving India or other acts of violence, including civil unrest or similar events that are beyond our control, could have a material adverse effect on India's economy and our business. Incidents such as the terrorist attacks in India, other incidents such as those in US, Indonesia, Madrid and London, and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Indian stock markets where our Equity Shares will trade. Such acts could negatively impact business sentiment as well as trade between countries, which could adversely affect our Company's business and profitability. Additionally, such events could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

10. *Malpractices by some players in the industry affect overall performance of emerging Companies.

The industry in which our Company operates is subject to risk associated with unethical business practices such as unethical marketing, dishonest advertising, questionable pricing practices, inaccurate claims with regards to safety and efficacy of the product etc. Consumers' attitude toward the industry today is dominated by a sense of mistrust, paving a way for regulators for stricter entry barriers and introduction of code of conducts; making the entire industry environment regulated and controlled. Malpractices by some players in the industry affects the overall performance of the emerging Companies like us as the industry norms are applicable to all at parity. Any unethical business practices by any industry player or intermediary may impact our business and results of operations.

11. *If certain labour laws become applicable to us, our profitability may be adversely affected.

India has stringent labour legislations that protect the interests of workers including legislation that set forth detailed procedures for dispute resolution and employee removal legislation that imposes certain financial obligations on employers and upon retrenchment. Any changes or modifications in the existing labour laws may affect our flexibility in formulating labour related policies.

12. *Significant differences exist between Indian GAAP, IND AS and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to the Financial Information prepared and presented in accordance with SEBI ICDR Regulations contained in this Draft Prospectus.

As stated in the reports of the Auditor included in this Draft Prospectus under section titled "Restated Financial Statement" on page Error! Bookmark not defined. of this Draft Prospectus are based on financial information that is based on the audited financial statements that are prepared and presented in conformity with Indian GAAP and restated in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, and no attempt has been made to reconcile any of the information given in this Draft Prospectus to any other principles or to base it on any other standards. Indian GAAP differs from accounting principles and auditing standards with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS. Significant differences exist between Indian GAAP, IND AS and U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with Indian GAAP contained in this Draft Prospectus. Accordingly, the degree to which the financial information included in this Draft Prospectus will provide meaningful information is dependent on familiarity with Indian GAAP, the Companies Act and the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian GAAP on the financial disclosures presented in this Draft Prospectus should accordingly be limited.

13. *Instability in financial market could materially and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

The Indian economy and financial markets are significantly influenced by worldwide economic, financial and market conditions. Any financial turmoil, especially in the United States of America or Europe, may have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Although economic conditions differ in each country, investors' reactions to any significant developments in one country can have adverse effects on the financial and market conditions in other countries. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems, particularly in other emerging markets, may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets. Indian financial markets have also in the past experienced the contagion effect of the global financial turmoil, evident from the sharp decline in the benchmark index. Any prolonged financial crisis may have an adverse impact on the Indian economy and us, thereby resulting in a material and adverse effect on our business, operations, financial condition, profitability and price of our Equity Shares.

14. *The extent and reliability of Indian infrastructure could adversely affect our Company's results of operations and financial condition.

India's physical infrastructure is in developing phase compared to that of many developed nations. Any congestion or disruption in its port, rail and road networks, electricity grid, communication systems or any other public facility could disrupt our Company's normal business activity. Any deterioration of India's physical infrastructure would harm the national economy, disrupt the transportation of goods and supplies, and add costs to doing business in India. These problems could interrupt our Company's business operations, which could have an adverse effect on its results of operations and financial condition.

15. A slowdown in economic growth in India could cause our business to suffer.

We are incorporated in India, and all of our assets and employees are located in India. As a result, we are highly dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India and our results of operations are significantly affected by factors influencing the Indian economy. A slowdown in the Indian economy could adversely affect our business, including our ability to grow our assets, the quality of our assets, and our ability to implement our strategy.

Factors that may adversely affect the Indian economy, and hence our results of operations, may include:

- i. any increase in Indian interest rates or inflation;
- ii. any scarcity of credit or other financing in India;
- iii. prevailing income conditions among Indian consumers and Indian corporations;
- iv. changes in India's tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies;
- v. political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India's various neighbouring countries;
- vi. prevailing regional or global economic conditions; and
- vii. other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India

Any slowdown in the Indian economy or in the growth of the sectors we participate in or future volatility in global commodity prices could adversely affect our borrowers and contractual counterparties. This in turn could adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

DETAILS OF THE OBJECTS OF THE OFFER

1. Capital Expenditure requirements towards acquisition of plant & machinery, transport vehicle/assets

Our business involves execution-heavy activities such as fabrication, erection, piping, pressure equipment installation, prefabricated structures, and civil works, which require reliable access to advanced machinery, transport assets, and support equipment. To strengthen our execution capabilities and improve operational efficiency, we propose to utilize a portion of the offer proceeds towards acquisition of plant & machinery and transport vehicles.

The proposed investments include fabrication and welding machines, cranes, boom lifts, trailers, hydraulic rolling equipment, and vehicles for the movement of material and manpower. These additions are expected to reduce reliance on rented equipment, lower operating costs, and improve our ability to meet project schedules in large-scale and technically demanding environments.

Procurement of trucks, trailers, and buses will facilitate smoother logistics by enabling the timely transportation of raw materials, fabricated components, and workforce between workshops and project sites. Similarly, ownership of heavy-lifting and handling equipment such as truck cranes, PnC cranes, and boom lifts will support safe and precise execution of complex erection and on-site integration works.

By investing in these assets, we intend to strengthen our operational base by improving efficiency, reducing external dependencies, and enhancing flexibility in project execution.

The quotation received, for funding of expenses proposed to be incurred towards the purchase of plant & machinery, transport vehicle/assets are as stated below:

In the event our Board deems appropriate, the amount allocated for estimated schedule of deployment of Net Proceeds in a particular fiscal may be repaid/ pre-paid by our Company in the subsequent Fiscal.

The repayment and/or pre-payment will help reduce our outstanding indebtedness; debt servicing costs assist us in maintaining a favourable debt-to-equity ratio and enable utilization of some additional amount from our internal accruals for further investment in our business growth and expansion. Additionally, our debt-equity ratio will improve significantly, it will enable us to raise at competitive rates in the future to fund potential business development opportunities and plans to grow and expand our business in the future.

The following table provides details of certain borrowings availed by our Company, which are outstanding as on September 30, 2025 which are currently proposed to be re-paid or pre-paid, in full or in part, to the extent of ₹808.00 lakhs from the Net Proceeds.

The working capital projections made by the Company are based on certain key assumptions, as set out below:

Overall Working Capital Requirement Justification:

1. Execution-Intensive Business Model

Our business model is execution-oriented, requiring continuous deployment of manpower, raw materials, machinery, and logistics across multiple projects running simultaneously. For such operations, the timely availability of working capital is fundamental to ensure smooth execution, adherence to project timelines.

Working capital supports essential activities such as procurement of raw materials, mobilisation of workforce, deployment or rental of equipment, and coordination of logistics across different geographies. Since project execution cycles typically extend over several months and billing is often linked to specific milestones or client certifications, a natural gap arises between expenditure outflows and revenue inflows.

Maintaining adequate working capital is therefore critical to ensure uninterrupted operations and timely delivery of projects, while also safeguarding relationships with clients, suppliers, and employees.

2. Replacement of Term Loan/Business Loan Facilities

As part of this Offer, we have proposed repayment of our existing term loan/business loan facilities. The repayment will help strengthen our balance sheet by reducing dependence on borrowings, improving the debt-to-equity ratio, and lowering finance costs, thereby enhancing overall financial stability.

While repayment will reduce finance costs, it is equally important that the liquidity previously supported through term loan/business loan is adequately replaced by working capital allocation from the Offer Proceeds. This will ensure uninterrupted availability of funds. By reducing reliance on term loan/business loan borrowings and substituting them with stronger internal liquidity from the Offer.

3. Strong Order Book Visibility

As certified by D G M S & Co., Chartered Accountants, vide certificate dated October 09, 2025, our Company has an outstanding order book of approximately ₹1,982.05 lakhs. This strong order pipeline is clear evidence of the scale of operations we are currently engaged in and the trust placed in us by clients across industries.

Each order involves multiple stages of execution procurement of raw materials, fabrication in workshops, on-site deployment of manpower and machinery, erection, installation, and final commissioning which requires continuous availability of working capital to avoid delays or disruptions.

With a healthy order book already in hand, the requirement of ₹400 lakhs from Offer Proceeds towards working capital is justified. It will support seamless execution of ongoing projects, enable us to take on larger assignments, and support timely deliveries, thereby strengthening client relationships and reinforcing our growth trajectory.

4. Projected Turnover and Justification of Working Capital Requirement

For the Financial Year 2025–26, our Company has projected a turnover of approximately ₹5,333.13 lakhs, supported by the execution of ongoing projects and a strong pipeline of confirmed orders. As of June 30, 2025, we had already achieved revenues of ₹1,212.08 lakhs in the first quarter. On an annualised basis, this translates into approximately ₹4,848.32 lakhs, and after factoring in a conservative annual growth rate of 10%, the projected turnover reasonably stands at ₹5,333.13 lakhs.

Our business model is execution-intensive, requiring continuous deployment of manpower, raw materials, fabrication resources, equipment, and logistics across multiple project sites. This naturally results in significant working capital requirements, primarily driven by trade receivables and project execution cycles. As reflected in our financials, the Company's operating cycle has ranged between 59 and 120 days over the past three years and is expected to stabilize at around 90 days in FY 2025–26, representing the average of the historical trend.

This projection and the corresponding working capital requirement are therefore consistent with our business model, and further also validated by our Q1 FY 2025–26 performance.

Sr. No.	Particulars	Assumptions
Current Assets
1	Inventories:	In the fabrication, erection, and construction industry, inventories form a critical part of the working capital cycle, as project execution depends on the uninterrupted availability of raw materials such as steel, pipes, structural sections, welding consumables, and other engineering inputs. Unlike trading businesses, where inventory turnover is faster, our operations involve procurement, machining, welding, and assembly of raw materials into customised industrial components and structures, followed by on-site deployment and erection. This makes it essential to maintain sufficient levels of inventories to ensure smooth execution without project delays.

Sr. No.	Particulars	Assumptions
		Our Company has historically maintained inventory holding in the range of 13 to 40 days for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2023, March 31, 2024, March 31, 2025, and for the period ended June 30, 2025, as per the Restated Financial Statements. For FY 2025–26, we propose to maintain an average holding of 30 days, which was near average of last years average inventory holding days. The need for maintaining such inventory levels arises because projects are often executed across multiple sites simultaneously, each requiring immediate mobilisation of materials. Procurement cycles for raw materials like steel and specialised equipment parts are subject to lead times, bulk order requirements, and market price fluctuations.
2	Trade receivables	In the fabrication and construction industry, trade receivables form a significant component of working capital, as revenues are typically realized only after certification of completed project stages by clients. Unlike businesses with immediate sales realization, our contracts follow milestone-based progressive billing, wherein invoices are raised upon completion of specific stages, subject to inspection, technical scrutiny, and formal approvals by the client. This process naturally results in a time gap between actual project execution and receipt of payments. As per our Restated Financial Statements, our Company has historically maintained receivable days in the range of 82 to 161 days for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2023, March 31, 2024, March 31, 2025, and for the period ended June 30, 2025. For FY 2025–26, we propose to maintain an average collection period of 90 days, which is lower than the average receivable cycle of the past three years, reflecting a more efficient collection approach going forward. The longer receivable cycle is inherent to the profile of our client base, which includes large industrial companies, refineries, power plants, steel facilities, and infrastructure projects. Payments from such clients are often released after multi-layered technical approvals and certification procedures. Additionally, execution of multiple projects simultaneously across diverse geographies leads to staggered billing and collections. While this extends receivable periods, our strong client relationships, track record of quality and safety compliance, and timely project delivery ensure realization of dues. Deployment of Net Proceeds from the Offer towards meeting working capital requirements will enable the Company to bridge this natural funding gap between upfront execution expenses and payment realization. This infusion will strengthen liquidity, ensure uninterrupted operations, reduce dependence on external borrowings, and allow us to scale up project execution in line with our order book.
3	Other current assets including Short term loans and advances	The key items under this head primarily include prepaid expenses such as insurance, rentals, and advance for land purchase, advances to suppliers for securing timely delivery of raw materials and equipment and manpower supply, balances with government authorities (including GST input credits, advance taxes, and statutory deposits), staff advances, and other receivables incidental to the business. ### GLOBAL ECONOMY OVERVIEW

Global Outlook

Global growth is slowing due to a substantial rise in trade barriers and the pervasive effects of an uncertain global policy environment. Growth is expected to weaken to 2.3 percent in 2025, with deceleration in most economies relative to last year. This would mark the slowest rate of global growth since 2008, aside from outright global recessions. In 2026-27, a tepid recovery is expected, leaving global output materially below January projections. Progress by emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs) in closing per capita income gaps with advanced economies and reducing extreme poverty is anticipated to remain insufficient. The outlook largely hinges on the evolution of trade policy globally. Growth could turn out to be lower if trade restrictions escalate or if policy uncertainty persists, which could also result in a build-up of financial stress. Other downside risks include weaker-than-expected growth in major economies with adverse global spillovers, worsening conflicts, and extreme weather events. On the upside, uncertainty and trade barriers could diminish if major economies reach lasting agreements that address trade tensions. The ongoing global headwinds underscore the need for determined multilateral policy efforts to foster a more predictable and transparent environment for resolving trade tensions, some of which stem from macroeconomic imbalances. Global policy efforts are also needed to confront the deteriorating circumstances of vulnerable EMDEs amid prevalent conflict and debt distress, while addressing long-standing challenges, including the effects of climate change. National policy makers need to contain risks related to inflation as well as strengthen their fiscal positions by raising additional domestic revenues and reprioritizing spending. To facilitate job creation and boost long-term growth prospects in EMDEs, reforms are essential to enhance institutional quality, stimulate private investment growth, develop human capital, and improve labor market functioning.

Regional Prospects

All EMDE regions face a challenging outlook amid the rise in trade tensions and heightened global uncertainty. In 2025, growth is projected to slow in East Asia and Pacific as well as in Europe and Central Asia—both regions that are highly reliant on global trade—and, to a lesser extent, in South Asia. In Latin America and the Caribbean, growth is projected to be the lowest among EMDE regions over the forecast horizon, as activity is held back by high trade barriers and long-standing structural weaknesses. In regions with a large number of commodity exporters, including in the Middle East and North Africa and Sub-Saharan Africa, growth is anticipated to face drags from the weakening outlook for external commodity demand. Against the backdrop of a deteriorating global environment, growth forecasts for 2025 have been downgraded in all EMDE regions relative to January projections.

OVERVIEW ON INDIAN ECONOMY

INTRODUCTION

India's economic journey over the past few years has been marked by remarkable growth and a steady rise in its position on the global stage. After overtaking the United Kingdom (UK) to become the fifth largest economy in Q1 FY23, India has continued this upward trajectory to surpass Japan in June 2025 to become the fourth largest economy in the world. With a nominal Gross Domestic Product (GDP) of Rs. 3,31,03,000 crore (US$ 3.78 trillion), India's growth reflects a combination of strong domestic demand and policy reforms positioning the country as a key destination for global capital.

Further, India is projected to reach a GDP of Rs. 4,26,45,000 crore (US$ 5 trillion) by 2027 and is on course to surpass Germany by 2028. Rising employment and increasing private consumption, supported by rising consumer sentiment, will support GDP growth in the coming months.

MARKET OVERVIEW

India's economy shows robust expansion, with real GDP for FY25 estimated at Rs. 1,87,97,000 crore (US$ 2.20 trillion), from Rs. 1,76,51,000 crore (US$ 2.06 trillion) in FY24 with a growth rate of 6.5%. This growth is driven by rising employment and stronger private consumption, supported by improving consumer sentiment, which is expected to keep the momentum going in the near future.

Trade remains a critical pillar of India's growth story with exports reaching Rs. 37,31,000 crore (US$ 436.6 billion) in FY25, led by Engineering Goods (26.88%), Petroleum Products (13.86%) and Electronic Goods (8.89%). These exports helped the economy stay resilient during the pandemic when other sectors slowed. Union Minister of Commerce and Industry, Mr. Piyush Goyal projects exports to reach Rs. 85,44,000 crore (US$ 1 trillion) by 2030.

India's ability to attract Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) has also strengthened. The country received record FDI inflows amounting to Rs. 4,21,929 crore (US$ 49.3 billion) in FY25 a 15% increase over FY24, supported by a stable policy environment, a large domestic market and steady economic growth positioning the country as a key destination for global capital. This capital inflow also complements government plans for increased investment in infrastructure and asset-building projects to further boost economic growth.

India's external economic position is improving. The current account deficit narrowed to Rs. 1,98,726 crore (US$ 23.30 billion), or 0.6% of GDP, in FY25 from Rs. 2,21,754 crore (US$ 26.00 billion), or 0.7% of GDP, in FY24. This improvement was due to higher net receipts from services and secondary income, according to the Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy, with consumption and investments contributing to 70% of the economic activity. With India's economy showing resilient growth, supported by strong domestic demand, policy reforms, and a healthy investment pipeline, several new projects and developments are underway across key sectors. This positive development across key sectors is evident from following key economic data points.

- According to the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), India's cumulative FDI inflow stood at Rs. 91,45,988 crore (US$ 1.07 trillion) between April 2000-March 2025 with major share coming from Mauritius at Rs. 15,36,849 crore (US$ 180.19 billion) with a total share of 25%, followed by Singapore at 24% with Rs. 14,91,603 crore (US$ 174.88 billion), the United States (US) at 10% with Rs. 6,02,574 crore (US$ 70.65 billion), the Netherlands at 7% with Rs. 4,54,613 crore (US$ 53.3 billion), and Japan at 6% with Rs. 3,78,653 crore (US$ 44.39 billion).

- As of July 4, 2025, India's foreign exchange reserves stood at Rs. 59,68,048 crore (US$ 699.74 billion).
- In May 2025, private equity (PE) and venture capital (VC) investments reached Rs. 20,470 crore (US$ 2.4 billion) across 97 deals.
- Foreign Institutional Investors (FII) outflows in FY25 were close to Rs. 1,27,000 crore (US$ 14.89 billion), while Domestic Institutional Investors (DII) bought in Rs. 6,00,000 crore (US$ 70.34 billion) in the same period.
- The HSBC India Manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) rose to a 14-month high of 58.4 in June 2025 from 57.6 in May, indicating a strong improvement in manufacturing conditions. Robust domestic and international demand drove sharp increases in output and new orders, while employment saw a record rise as firms expanded their workforce to meet rising workloads. New export orders surged, marking the third-fastest growth since the survey began in 2005. Although input cost inflation eased, producer prices increased as companies passed on higher freight and labour costs to customers.
- India saw a robust 10.35% growth in passengers carried by domestic airlines at 431.98 lakh in FY25, from 391.46 lakh in FY24, according to the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA).
- India secured 39th position out of 133 economies in the Global Innovation Index 2024. India rose from 81st position in 2015 to 39th position in 2024. India ranks third position in the global number of scientific publications.
- In FY25, the Goods and Services Tax (GST) recorded its highest-ever gross collection at Rs. 22,08,000 crore (US$ 258 billion), registering a YoY growth of 9.4%. The average monthly collection stood at Rs. 1,84,000 crore (US$ 21.57 billion).
- In May 2025, the overall Index of Industrial Production (IIP) stood at 156.6 (base 2011–12 = 100), reflecting a YoY growth of 1.2%. The mining, manufacturing and electricity sectors stood at 136.6, 154.3 and 216, respectively.
- According to data released by the Ministry of Statistics & Programme Implementation (MoSPI), India's Consumer Price Index (CPI) - Combined inflation was 3.34% in March 2025 against 4.85% in March 2024.
- India's wheat procurement for FY26 has reached 29.7 million tonnes as of May 22, 2025, the highest in four years and up 13.5% YoY. Strong production of 115.43 million tonnes, favourable weather, and bonuses above the Minimum Support Price (MSP) in key states have driven this growth. The Food Corporation of India expects procurement to hit 32.5 million tonnes by season end, raising stocks to 44 million tonnes, well above the 18.4 million tonnes needed for the Public Distribution System.

GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES

Over the years, the Indian government has introduced many initiatives to strengthen the nation's economy. The Indian government has been effective in developing policies and programmes that are not only beneficial for citizens to improve their financial stability but also for the overall growth of the economy. Over recent decades, India's rapid economic growth has led to a substantial increase in its demand for exports. Besides this, several of the government's flagship programmes, including Make in India, Start-up India, Digital India, the Smart City Mission, and the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation, is aimed at creating immense opportunities in India. In this regard, some of the initiatives taken by the government to improve the economic condition of the country are mentioned below:

- On July 5, 2025, the Union Cabinet approved the Rs. 1,00,000 crore (US$ 11.72 billion) Research, Development and Innovation (RDI) Scheme, launching long-term, low- or zero-interest funding via a special purpose fund under the ANRF to jump-start India's R&D ecosystem and support deep-tech and startup innovation.
- On March 27, 2025, the Reserve Bank of India proposed doubling the investment cap for individual foreign investors in listed firms from 5% to 10%, with a combined foreign individual limit increasing to 24%, to counter Foreign Portfolio Investment (FPI) outflows.

ROAD AHEAD

India's economy grew by 6.5% in FY25. With a 7.4% growth rate in Q4 FY25, with RBI projecting a growth rate of 6.5% in FY26 as well. India's comparatively strong position in the external sector reflects the country's positive outlook for economic growth and rising employment rates. In 2024, India rose to 15th place globally in FDI rankings and retained its position as South Asia's top recipient.

In H1 FY25, India's growth-focused approach was underscored by the government's capital expenditure outlay of Rs. 15,02,000 crore (US$ 176 billion), reinforcing its commitment to infrastructure-led development.

In the Union Budget of FY26, capital expenditure took lead by steeply increasing the capital expenditure outlay by 10% to Rs. 11,21,000 crore (US$ 131 billion) over Rs. 10,18,000 crore (US$ 119 billion) in FY25. Stronger revenue generation because of improved tax compliance, increased profitability of the company, and increasing economic activity also contributed to rising capital spending levels.

India's total goods and service exports surged by 76% over the past decade, touching Rs. 70,36,425 crore (US$ 825 billion) in FY25, driven by strong performance in engineering goods, electronics, and pharmaceuticals. With a reduction in port congestion, supply networks are being restored.

With a proactive set of administrative actions by the government, flexible monetary policy, and a softening of global commodity prices and supply-chain bottlenecks, inflationary pressures in India look to be on the decline overall.

INFRASTRUCTURE SECTOR IN INDIA

INTRODUCTION

Infrastructure is a key enabler in helping India become a US$ 26 trillion economy. Investments in building and upgrading physical infrastructure, especially in synergy with the ease of doing business initiatives, remain pivotal to increase efficiency and costs. Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi also recently reiterated that infrastructure is a crucial pillar to ensure good governance across sectors.

The government's focus on building infrastructure of the future has been evident given the slew of initiatives launched recently. The US$ 1.3 trillion national master plan for infrastructure, Gati Shakti, has been a forerunner to bring about systemic and effective reforms in the sector, and has already shown a significant headway.

Infrastructure support to the nation's manufacturers also remains one of the top agendas as it will significantly transform goods and exports movement making freight delivery effective and economical.

The "Smart Cities Mission" and "Housing for All" programmes have benefited from these initiatives. Saudi Arabia seeks to spend up to US$ 100 billion in India in energy, petrochemicals, refinery, infrastructure, agriculture, minerals, and mining.

The infrastructure sector is a key driver of the Indian economy. The sector is highly responsible for propelling India's overall development and enjoys intense focus from the Government for initiating policies that would ensure the time-bound creation of world-class infrastructure in the country. The infrastructure sector includes power, bridges, dams, roads, and urban infrastructure development. In other words, the infrastructure sector acts as a catalyst for India's economic growth as it drives the growth of the allied sectors like townships, housing, built-up infrastructure, and construction development projects.

To meet India's aim of reaching a US$ 5 trillion economy by 2025, infrastructure development is the need of the hour. The government has launched the National Infrastructure Pipeline (NIP) combined with other initiatives such as 'Make in India' and the production-linked incentives (PLI) scheme to augment the growth of the infrastructure sector. Historically, more than 80% of the country's infrastructure spending has gone toward funding for transportation, electricity, and water, and irrigation.

While these sectors still remain the key focus, the government has also started to focus on other sectors as India's environment and demographics are evolving. There is a compelling need for enhanced and improved delivery across the whole infrastructure spectrum, from housing provision to water and sanitation services to digital and transportation demands, which will assure economic growth, increase quality of life, and boost sectoral competitiveness.

MARKET SIZE

Starting with 6,835 projects, the NIP project count now stands at 9,142 covering 34 sub-sectors, as per news reports. Under the initiative, 2,476 projects are under the development phase with an estimated investment of US$ 1.9 trillion. Nearly half of the under-development projects are in the transportation sector, and 3,906 are in the roads and bridges sub-sector.

During FY24, Total revenue of Indian Railways stands at US$ 28.89 billion (Rs 2.40 Lakh crore) as on 15th March. Last year on 15th March, total Revenue was US$ 26.84 billion (Rs 2.23 Lakh crore).

As of November 2024, the Indian Railways has transported 1,038 million tonnes (mt) of freight, which is a 2.1% increase from the previous year.

India's logistics market is estimated to be US$ 317.26 billion in 2024 and is expected to reach US$ 484.43 billion by 2029, growing at a CAGR of 8.8%.

The India Residential Real Estate Market size is estimated at Rs. 2,439,381 crore (US$ 283.55 billion) in 2025 and is expected to reach Rs. 73,76,212 crore (US$ 857.40 billion) by 2030, at a CAGR of 24.77%.

India's ranking in the World Bank's Logistics Performance Index improved by six spots, moving from 44th in 2018 to 38th out of 139 countries in 2023. India intends to raise its ranking in the Logistics Performance Index to 25 and bring down the logistics cost from 14% to 8% of GDP, leading to a reduction of approximately 40%, within the next five years.

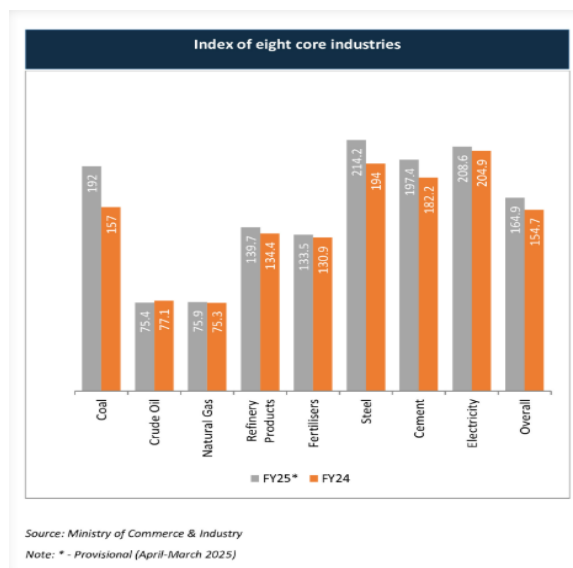

In December 2022, AAI and other Airport Developers have targeted capital outlay of approximately Rs. 98,000 crore (US$ 11.8 billion) in airport sector in the next five years for expansion and modification of existing terminals, new terminals and strengthening of runways, among other activities.

India currently has the fifth-largest metro network in the world and will soon overtake advanced economies such as Japan and South Korea to become the third-largest network. Metro rail network reached 810 kms and is operational in 20 cities.

In the last 10 years, 697 km have been added to Metro Rail Network across the country. In 2024, about 945 km of metro rail lines are operational in 21 cities and 919 km is under construction in 26 different cities.

At almost 20 kms, Mumbai monorail is the third largest route in the world after China with 98 kms and Japan with 28 kms.

Indian logistics market is estimated to touch US$ 320 billion by 2025. The overall infrastructure CAPEX is estimated to grow at a CAGR of 11.4% over 2021-26 driven by spending on water supply, transport, and urban infrastructure. Investment in infrastructure contributed around 5% of the GDP in the tenth five-year plan as against 9% in the eleventh five-year plan. Further, US$ 1 trillion investment in infrastructure was proposed by the India's planning commission during the 12th five-year plan, with 40% of the funds coming from the private sector.

ROAD AHEAD

With a 37% increase in the current fiscal year, capital expenditures (CAPEX) are on the rise, which bolsters ongoing infrastructure development and fits with 2027 goals for India's economic growth to become a US$ 5 trillion economy. In order to anticipate private sector investment and to address employment and consumption in rural India, the budget places a strong emphasis on the development of roads, shipping, and railways.

Global investment and partnerships in infrastructure, such as the India-Japan forum for development in the Northeast are also indicative of more investments. These initiatives come at a momentous juncture as the country aims for self-reliance in future-ready and sustainable critical infrastructure.

India, it is estimated, needs to invest US$ 840 billion over the next 15 years into urban infrastructure to meet the needs of its fast-growing population. This investment will only be rational as well as sustainable, if we additionally focus on long-term maintenance and strength of our buildings, bridges, ports, and airports.

As a result of digitalisation and opportunities that tier II and III cities present for economic growth, the divide between metro and non-metros is blurring, moving to the new era of infrastructure growth. Commercial real estate properties have witnessed exponential growth in demand across Tier II & III cities as Information technology and Information technology enabled services and banking financial services and insurance focused organizations are increasingly decentralizing their operations to adapt to the new normal.

The residential sector has witnessed good sales, and launches have also shown signs of an uptick during 2022, total sales in the top-7 cities was projected to exceed 360,000 units in 2022.

Civil Aviation Ministry's "Vision 2040" report states that there will be 190-200 functioning airports in India by 2040. Delhi and Mumbai will have three international airports each, while top 31 Indian cities will have two operational airports each.

220 destinations (airports/heliports/water aerodromes) under UDAN are targeted to be completed by 2026 with 1000 routes to provide air connectivity to unconnected destinations in India.

India's Infrastructure forms an integral part of the country's economic ecosystem. There has been a significant shift in the industry that is leading to the development of world-class facilities across the country in the areas of roads, waterways, railways, airports, and ports, among others. The country-wide smart cities programmes have proven to be industry game-changers. Given its critical role in the growth of the nation, the infrastructure sector has experienced a tremendous boom because of India's necessity and desire for rapid development. The expansion has been aided by urbanisation and an increase in foreign investment in the sector.

The infrastructure sector has become the biggest focus area for the Government of India. India's GDP is expected to grow by 8% over the next three fiscal years, one of the quickest rates among major, developing economies, according to S&P Global Ratings. India and Japan have joined hands for infrastructure development in India's Northeast states and are also setting up an India-Japan Coordination Forum for development of Northeast to undertake strategic infrastructure projects for the region.

India being a developing nation is set to take full advantage of the opportunity for the expansion of the infrastructure sector, and it is reasonable to conclude that India's infrastructure has a bright future ahead of it.

Our Company is engaged in a diversified portfolio of industrial services that span fabrication, piping, erection, pressure equipment, prefabricated structures, Blasting & Painting, maintenance & mechanical services, and civil construction works. Our role begins where we undertake the core execution and manufacturing activities that convert approved plans into functional industrial assets. Through these activities, our Company plays a critical role in creating and sustaining industrial and infrastructure facilities across sectors.

Fabrication forms a central part of our business and constitutes one of the most important areas of our operations. We are engaged in the machining, welding, and assembling of raw materials such as steel and other structural components into finished parts and sections as per client specifications. Our fabrication scope is broad and covers multiple categories of work. In structural fabrication, we manufacture technological frameworks, industrial buildings, girders, heavy modules, platforms, and crane girders that are critical for plant construction and infrastructure projects. In equipment fabrication, our activities include pressure vessels, boilers, heat exchangers, tanks, chimneys, ducts, ladles, and blast furnace components, which are widely used in process industries such as steel, power, oil and gas, and refineries. We also fabricate specialised components such as dish ends, crowns, petals, and customised parts, including diesel engine components for railway applications that require a high degree of precision and strict compliance with industry standards. As fabrication work forms the base for subsequent erection and installation, this area of our operations plays a pivotal role in ensuring the overall readiness, reliability, and quality of the industrial assets delivered by our Company.

We also provide erection services, which constitute an important area of our operations and one of the most critical stages in the industrial project lifecycle. These services cover the on-site installation, alignment, and integration of fabricated structures, equipment, and piping systems, all executed in accordance with client-approved designs and specifications. Erection requires handling and positioning of heavy structures, assembling of large equipment modules, and connecting auxiliary systems, often within complex and high-risk industrial environments. As the final step linking fabrication to operational readiness, this work demands strict adherence to safety norms, precise execution, and careful coordination with other site activities. Through these services, our Company enables the transition of fabricated components into stable, functional, and compliant industrial assets, thereby playing a vital role in the completion and commissioning of projects across sectors such as oil & gas, refineries, power plants, steel plants, bridges, and large infrastructure works. Erection is not only about placing components but about ensuring stability, safety, and operational readiness. Any gap at this stage can delay or disrupt an entire project, making it one of the most sensitive and high-responsibility activities in the lifecycle of industrial facilities.

In addition to fabrication and erection services, our Company also undertakes civil construction works. Our scope in civil construction includes site preparation, earthworks, concreting, foundations for heavy machinery, superstructures for industrial facilities, factory buildings, silos, tanks, and other supporting works required for plant and infrastructure development.

In Piping services, we undertake the fabrication and erection of process and utility piping networks covering systems for fluids, gases, steam, and chemicals as per client requirements. Our scope includes not only the erection of pipelines but also, where required, the manufacturing of pipes from raw materials, followed by welding, fitting, and assembling into functional sections. These piping systems are then installed and aligned on-site to integrate with plant layouts and connect with critical equipment. This ensures proper flow, safety, and uninterrupted operations in industries such as refineries, power plants, chemical complexes, steel facilities, and other process-driven units.

Pressure equipment construction and installation is also part of our scope. We fabricate, assemble, and erect heavy-duty vessels, tanks, and related equipment for sectors such as oil & gas, refineries, steel, and power. Given the high-risk applications of such equipment, we also provide ongoing maintenance, repair, and lifecycle services to ensure operational safety and compliance with technical standards.

Our Company provides prefabricated structural solutions for a range of applications. These include modular buildings for industrial and commercial use, portable industrial units for temporary site requirements, and customised enclosures tailored to client specifications. Prefabricated solutions allow quicker deployment, flexibility of use, and efficient resource management, particularly for remote or time-sensitive projects.

Alongside, Our Company also undertakes maintenance and mechanical services which provide long-term support to operating facilities. These include preventive and corrective maintenance of equipment, calibration of pressure safety valves (PSV), non-destructive testing (NDT) to detect faults and ensure integrity, sandblasting and industrial painting for corrosion protection, and support during planned shutdowns and turnarounds. These services are designed to reduce downtime, extend asset life, and support safe operations in industrial plants.

Over the years, we have executed assignments across a diverse project base. This includes bridge construction works, cement and fertilizer plants, chemical industry projects, solar and aluminium facilities, factory building projects, hydrocarbon and refinery projects, power plant installations, steel plant works, tanks and silo construction, and pressure vessel fabrication jobs.

We cater to a wide range of industries such as oil & gas, petrochemicals, refineries, power generation, steel, heavy metals, cement, nuclear power, bridges, metro rail, bullet train infrastructure, and other industrial and infrastructure projects. This sectoral diversity allows us to participate in projects of national importance and contribute to the industrial ecosystem.

As of date, our Company employs 557 personnel, including skilled, semi-skilled, and supervisory staff. Our workforce is deployed both at our fabrication facilities and at client project sites. This manpower base enables us to handle projects of varying size and complexity while maintaining quality and safety standards across multiple locations.

By undertaking fabrication, erection, piping, prefabricated structures, pressure equipment, maintenance, and civil construction works, our Company participates across multiple stages of the industrial project lifecycle. From building structural foundations to delivering operational readiness, we contribute both to the creation of new assets and to the sustained operation of existing industrial and infrastructure facilities.

OUR BUSINESS PROCESS FLOWCHART

OUR BUSINESS PROCESS

1. Tendering & Bidding

Our process begins with participation in client tenders. We prepare and submit both technical bids, detailing our capabilities, compliance, and methodology, and financial bids, outlining cost and commercial terms. Evaluation of these bids forms the basis of project awards.

2. Receipt & Acceptance of Work Order

Once a project is awarded, the client issues a work order or letter of intent. We review the order to confirm scope, timelines, technical requirements, and compliance obligations before formal acceptance. This becomes the contractual foundation for execution.

3. Planning & Resource Allocation

Detailed execution planning follows, covering work breakdown structures, manpower deployment, scheduling, and equipment allocation. Client-provided drawings and designs are reviewed to determine precise requirements, ensuring resources are aligned with project goals.

4. Procurement of Raw Materials & Inputs

Steel, structural sections, pipes, welding consumables, and other inputs are sourced in line with approved specifications. Vendor evaluation, quality checks, and logistics planning ensure timely delivery of inputs to fabrication facilities and project sites.

5. Fabrication & Manufacturing

Fabrication activities may be carried out either at our workshops (off-site) or directly at client locations (on-site), depending on the scope and technical requirements of the project. This process involves machining, welding, and assembling raw materials into finished structures, piping sections, equipment, or prefabricated modules. In certain cases, components are fabricated in workshops under controlled conditions and later transported for on-site assembly and erection. At every stage, whether off-site or on-site, strict quality checks are undertaken to ensure compliance with client specifications, industry standards, and safety norms.

6. Erection & On-Site Works

Fabricated components are transported and installed at project sites. Erection includes installation, alignment, and integration of structures, equipment, and piping systems, often within complex and high-risk industrial environments. Coordination with site stakeholders and adherence to safety standards are critical at this stage.

7. Quality Assurance & Inspection

Quality assurance is embedded across the entire process, with inspections at each stage — from material procurement to fabrication, erection, and commissioning. Tests such as NDT, pressure testing, PSV calibration, and trial runs are performed to confirm compliance with client specifications, industry codes, and statutory standards.

8. Dispatch, Completion & Handover

Completed works are commissioned, tested, and handed over to the client. Handover includes submission of compliance documentation, quality records, and completion certificates. This marks the formal closure of project execution.

9. Billing & Documentation

Billing is prepared on the basis of measurement books, client approvals, and progress records. Comprehensive documentation, including quality reports and statutory compliance submissions, accompanies billing to ensure contractual closure.

10. Post-Completion Support

After handover, we extend lifecycle support through maintenance, corrective works, and other services, depending on client requirements. This ensures reliable functioning of assets and strengthens long-term client relationships.

OUR COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

1. Experienced management team

Our strength is anchored in the experience and vision of our Promoters. Mr. Mohammad Khurshid Alam Khan brings over 25 years in fabrication and construction, while Mrs. Zarinabegum Khurshid Alam Khan contributes more than 18 years in operations. Under their leadership, the Company has developed a business model that integrates fabrication, erection, civil construction, and related services, with the flexibility to execute projects both at our workshops and on client sites. Supported by a skilled engineering and technical team, this leadership has enabled us to deliver complex projects with consistency, safety, and quality, while building long-term relationships with clients and vendors that drive repeat business and growth.

2. Comprehensive Portfolio with Sectoral Diversity

We offer an integrated portfolio of services that includes fabrication, piping, erection, pressure equipment, prefabricated structures, maintenance & mechanical services, and civil construction works. This diversified mix enables us to participate across multiple phases of the industrial and infrastructure project lifecycle from foundations and structural works to installation, commissioning, and maintenance. Over the years, we have successfully executed assignments across industries such as oil & gas, refineries, petrochemicals, steel, power, cement, fertilizer, nuclear, bridges, metro rail, and bullet train infrastructure. This sectoral reach, combined with our service depth, enhances our ability to handle complex assignments and contribute to industries of strategic and national importance.

3. Strong and diverse Order Book

A strong and diversified order book forms one of our key strengths. As of September 30, 2025, we were executing more than 26 projects with a balance work order value of ₹1,982.05 lakhs, as certified by D G M S & Co., Chartered Accountants, vide certificate dated October 09, 2025. This order pipeline provides visibility of future revenues, reflects the confidence of clients in our execution capabilities, and supports sustainable growth. With projects spread across multiple sectors, our order book reduces dependency on any single industry and positions us to capitalize on emerging opportunities in fabrication, erection, civil construction, and related services.

4. Flexible Execution Model (On-Site and Off-Site)

Our operations are adaptable, with works carried out either in our fabrication workshops under controlled conditions or directly at client sites, depending on project requirements. This dual capability enables us to handle a variety of assignments from prefabricated modules manufactured off-site to large-scale civil and erection works executed at project locations.

5. *Integrated Fabrication and Erection Expertise

A core strength of our business is the seamless integration of fabrication and erection. By manufacturing structural frameworks, piping, equipment, and customised components, and then undertaking their on-site installation and alignment, we deliver end-to-end execution that ensures operational readiness of facilities.

6. *Quality and Safety Framework

Quality and safety form an integral part of our operations, embedded into every stage of the project lifecycle. From procurement of raw materials to fabrication, erection, and final handover, our works are subject to systematic inspections and checks. Processes such as non-destructive testing (NDT), pressure testing, PSV calibration, and trial runs ensure that each output meets the required specifications and industry codes. To reinforce this approach, the Company has implemented globally recognised systems and is certified under ISO 9001:2015 for Quality Management and ISO 45001:2018 for Occupational Health and Safety. These certifications reflect our structured way of working, where reliability, compliance, and workplace safety are prioritised as essential elements in every project we undertake.

7. *Skilled Workforce and Operational Capability

We have a team of 557 personnel, including skilled, semi-skilled, and supervisory staff, who form the backbone of our execution activities. Supported by fabrication workshops and site-based deployment teams, this workforce enables us to manage projects of diverse scale and complexity. The combination of in-house expertise and field resources allows us to maintain consistency in quality, safety, and timelines across multiple project locations simultaneously.

OUR BUSINESS STRATEGIES

1. *Expansion of Geographic Footprint

We have established a presence across states such as Gujarat, Maharashtra, Haryana, Rajasthan, Odisha, Bihar, and Chhattisgarh through the execution of diverse industrial and infrastructure projects. Building on this base, we plan to extend our operations into underpenetrated regions, particularly the North-Eastern and Southern states of India. This strategic expansion will enable us to access new markets, diversify our revenue streams, and reinforce our long-term growth prospects.

2. *Enhancing Financial Strength through Debt Reduction

A portion of the Offer proceeds will be used towards repayment of existing loans. This will reduce our finance costs, improve our debt-equity position, and strengthen our balance sheet. A stronger financial profile will enhance our ability to bid competitively for larger projects and secure favourable terms from clients, suppliers, and financial institutions.

3. *Focus on Skilled Workforce and Operational Excellence

We recognise that the quality of our execution depends heavily on the strength of our workforce. With 557 personnel across engineering, technical, and supervisory functions, we aim to continue investing in training and skill development. This will ensure that our teams remain aligned with evolving technologies, safety protocols, and quality standards, thereby enhancing efficiency, reliability, and client satisfaction.

4. *Capitalising on Growing Infrastructure Demand

The Indian infrastructure sector is witnessing sustained growth driven by government initiatives, industrial investments, and public infrastructure projects. With established capabilities in fabrication, erection, civil works, and maintenance services, we are well positioned to participate in opportunities across sectors such as power, oil & gas, steel, cement, bridges, metro rail, and bullet train projects.

through operational efficiency, adherence to safety and quality standards, and maintaining competitive pricing through tendering process.

QUALITY MEASURES

Quality assurance is embedded at every stage of our project execution. From the receipt of raw materials to the completion of final erection and handover, systematic inspections and quality checks are carried out at defined intervals. At each stage, inspection reports are prepared and documented, with copies maintained by us for record and compliance purposes.

In addition to our internal checks, clients or their representatives also conduct inspections at various stages to verify quality standards, specifications, and workmanship. This dual-layer approach—comprising both our internal quality framework and client-side inspections—ensures complete transparency and adherence to contractual and technical requirements.

Through stage-wise documentation, inspection reports, and joint verification processes, we maintain traceability, accountability, and consistency in quality, thereby ensuring that all deliverables meet prescribed standards before final handover.

PROCUREMENT OF RAW MATERIAL

For most of our projects, major raw materials such as steel and cement are either supplied directly by the client or sourced from vendors nominated under the contract. In several cases, procurement is required to be made from client-approved or pre-identified suppliers, ensuring alignment with contractual obligations and project requirements. Only in exceptional instances we have identify vendors independently, and such procurement is carried out after obtaining client approval.

In addition to these key inputs, our projects also require consumables and ancillary items including welding electrodes, MIG wire, grinding and cutting wheels, bearings, armatures, gear sets, field coils, TCT annular cutters, packing glands, MCCB, RCCB, PPEs, flood lights, and other similar materials. These are generally sourced from local suppliers near project sites, enabling timely availability and uninterrupted progress of work. Our procurement framework is designed to ensure consistency in quality, compliance with technical standards, and efficient execution across fabrication, erection, civil works, and maintenance activities.

Movement of fabricated structures, equipment, and prefabricated modules is managed through third-party logistics providers or through arrangements mutually agreed with clients. For on-site erection and civil works, materials and equipment are mobilized using a combination of company-owned vehicles and outsourced transport services to ensure timely execution of projects.

COMPETITION

We operate in a competitive business environment comprising both organized and unorganized players engaged in fabrication, erection, piping, pressure equipment, prefabricated structures, civil construction, and related services. Competition arises from domestic companies with established operations as well as regional and mid-sized contractors that operate on a project-to-project basis. In certain segments, we also face competition from international companies participating in large-scale infrastructure and industrial projects.

The intensity of competition varies depending on the project type, scale, technical complexity, and geographic location. Our Company competes on parameters such as execution capability, quality of fabrication and erection, ability to meet project-specific technical standards, timely delivery, safety compliance, and pricing. Additionally, long-term relationships, past project credentials, and proven experience in handling on-site as well as off-site works play an important role to compete in market.

GENERAL CORPORATE LAWS

The Companies Act, 2013:

The Companies Act, 2013 ("The Act") represents a significant legislative advancement that replaced the 56-year-old Company Law. On August 29, 2013, the President of India enacted the Act into law. This statute is contemporary and reflects current practices, having been developed after extensive consultations with various stakeholders. The framework of governance transitions from a control-based system to one characterized by self-regulation and liberalization. The Act comprises 29 chapters, accompanied by seven schedules and a total of 470 sections. It empowers the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, under the central government, to formulate regulations through subordinate legislation.

It detailed various procedures and guidelines for the company's management, encompassing its establishment, administration, and governance; restructuring; methods for fundraising; compliance; the rights, responsibilities, and obligations of various stakeholders; liquidation and winding up; the appointment and resignation of directors and Key Managerial Personnel (KMPs); mergers and amalgamations; the issuance and distribution of securities; the rights of minority shareholders; issues of oppression and mismanagement; India was the pioneering country to implement legislation mandating corporate social responsibility (CSR) expenditures as stipulated in Section 135 of the 2013 Act.

SEBI Act, Rules and Regulations:

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) is responsible for overseeing the processes of listing and delisting stocks, along with various operations within the securities market. It formulates numerous laws and guidelines aimed at regulating listed companies, securities transactions, exchange platforms, the securities market, and the intermediaries involved. The principal regulations that govern listed entities include the SEBI Act of 1992, the Securities Contract Regulation Act of 1956, the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Rules of 1957, the SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations of 2018, the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirement) Regulations of 2015, the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeover) Regulations of 2011, and the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations of 2015.

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016:

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code of 2016 encompasses companies, limited liability partnerships (LLPs), individuals, and partnerships with unlimited liability. To maintain the economic value of the process within a specified timeframe, the IBC 2016 introduced a collective framework for insolvency resolution in the country, ensuring a careful equilibrium for all stakeholders involved. The code empowers any creditor of a corporate debtor (CD), whether they are secured or unsecured, financial or operational, to petition the adjudicating authority (AA) to initiate the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP) against the corporate debtor at their discretion, should the corporate debtor default on their payment obligations for a sum that is periodically assessed. A resolution for the corporation must be pursued within 180 days from the commencement of the aforementioned CIRP.

Transfer of Property Act, 1882:

The Transfer of Property Act, 1882 ("TP Act") addresses the various methods by which property transfers occur, including the transfer of immovable property or any associated interest, among individuals, firms, and companies. This method of transfer among individuals and firms is regulated by the provisions of the TP Act, in contrast to property transfers or interests that occur by operation of law. According to the TP Act, property can be transferred through sale, gift, or exchange, while interests in the property may be conveyed via lease or mortgage. The TP Act outlines the fundamental principles governing property transfers, which include, among other aspects, the identification of property categories eligible for transfer, the qualifications of individuals authorized to transfer property, the legitimacy of restrictions and conditions placed on the transfer, and the establishment of contingent and vested interests in the property. Property transfers are also subject to stamping and registration in accordance with specific statutes enacted for these purposes, which will be discussed further below.

The TP Act acknowledges, among other things, the following methods through which an interest in immovable property may be conveyed:

- Sale: The conveyance of ownership in property for a price that is either paid or promised to be paid.
- Mortgage: The conveyance of an interest in property aimed at securing the repayment of a loan, whether it be an existing or future debt, or the fulfillment of an obligation that results in a financial liability. The T.P. Act recognizes various forms of mortgages concerning a property.
- Charges: Transactions that involve the establishment of security over property for the payment of money to another party, which do not fall under the category of a mortgage. Charges may be established either through legal means, such as a court decree attaching to specific immovable property, or through the actions of the parties involved.
- Leases: The conveyance of a right to utilize property in exchange for consideration that is paid or provided periodically or on designated occasions.
- Leave and License: The conveyance of a right to perform certain actions on immovable property without establishing an interest in the property itself.

Additionally, it is important to note that concerning the transfer of any interest in a property, the transferor conveys such interest, along with any associated rights, that he is legally able to transfer, and under the law, he cannot convey a superior title than what he himself holds.

The Registration Act, 1908:

The Registration Act of 1908 was enacted to consolidate the various laws concerning the registration of documents. This Act specifies the documents that must be registered, including, among other things, any non-testamentary instrument that aims to create, declare, assign, limit, or extinguish any right, title, or interest in immovable property, whether such rights are present or future, vested or contingent. Additionally, it covers leases of immovable property that exceed one year or involve a yearly rent. Furthermore, the Act allows for the optional registration of certain documents as detailed in its provisions.

The Specific Relief Act, 1963:

The legislation came into effect on December 13, 1963, with the primary aim of offering assistance to individuals who have experienced civil wrongs. The Specific Relief Act of 1963 is a legal framework that outlines remedies for specific performance in particular situations, as opposed to general relief or compensation. This Act regulates the provision of specific relief in civil matters, encompassing contracts, property conflicts, trusts, torts, and intellectual property issues. It is applicable in instances where the Court is empowered to mandate the specific performance of a contract. Specific relief is granted solely for the enforcement of individual civil rights and not merely for the enforcement of penal statutes. Specific performance entails that the Court will direct a party to fulfill their obligations under the agreement, rather than imposing a financial liability for damages on that party.

Sales of Goods Act, 1930:

The Sale of Goods Act, 1930 serves as a comprehensive statute that regulates all types of sales. The Act addresses the contract of sale of goods, which is defined as an agreement in which the seller transfers or commits to transfer ownership of goods to the buyer in exchange for a price. The term 'contract of sale' is a broad concept that encompasses both a sale and an agreement to sell. Under this Act, 'Goods' refers to all forms of movable property, excluding actionable claims and money, and includes items such as stock and shares, growing crops, grass, and items that are affixed to or constitute part of the land, provided they are agreed to be detached prior to the sale or as stipulated in the contract of sale.

The Indian Contract Act, 1872:

The Indian Contract Act of 1872 is a comprehensive collection of laws that governs all business transactions within India. Besides offering remedies for breaches of contract, this act sets forth the guidelines and standards that must be adhered to when forming a contract. The Law of Contract represents the most significant sector of Mercantile or Commercial Law. It serves as the cornerstone upon which the framework of contemporary business is constructed. Its influence extends to everyone, particularly in the realms of trade, commerce, and industry. It can be asserted that contracts form the bedrock of a civilized society. The Indian Contract Act is divided into two sections. The first section (Sections 1-75) addresses the general principles of contract law and is applicable to all contracts, regardless of their type. The second section (Sections 124-238) focuses on specific types of contracts, including contracts of Indemnity and Guarantee, Bailment, Pledge, and Agency.

The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881:

The legal framework in India concerning negotiable instruments is outlined in the Negotiable Instruments Act of 1881. This Act serves to define and modify the laws pertaining to Promissory Notes, Bills of Exchange, and Cheques. It is applicable throughout India; however, it does not alter the provisions of the Reserve Bank of India Act of 1934 (specifically section 21, which grants the Bank the authority to conduct Government business in India), nor does it impact any local customs related to instruments in an oriental language. It is important to note that such customs may be overridden by any explicit language within the instrument that indicates an intention for the legal relationships of the involved parties to be governed by this Act. The Act is set to take effect on the first of March, 1882. Furthermore, the provisions of this Act extend to Hundis, unless a local custom dictates otherwise. Other indigenous instruments, such as Treasury Bills and Bearer debentures, are also recognized as negotiable instruments either through mercantile custom or other legislative measures. The Act has undergone several amendments. Notably, three amendments to the Negotiable Instruments Act include the Negotiable Instruments (Amendment and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act of 2002, the Negotiable Instruments (Amendment) Act of 2015, and the Negotiable Instruments (Amendment) Act of 2018. The Negotiable Instruments (Amendment) Act of 2018 received presidential assent and was published in the official gazette on August 2, 2018, coming into force on September 1, 2018. This Amendment Act introduces two key changes: the addition of Section 143A and Section 148, which provide for interim compensation during the duration of a criminal complaint and the associated criminal appeal.

Information Technology Act, 2000:

The Information Technology Act of 2000 was enacted by the Parliament during the Fifty-first Year of the Republic of India. This Act provides legal recognition for transactions conducted through electronic data interchange and other forms of electronic communication, commonly known as electronic commerce. It involves the use of alternatives to traditional paper-based methods for communication and information storage, thereby facilitating the electronic submission of documents to government agencies. Additionally, it amends the Indian Penal Code, the Indian Evidence Act of 1872, the Banker's Books Evidence Act of 1891, and the Reserve Bank of India Act of 1934, along with related matters. The Act includes provisions for the regulation of digital signatures, electronic governance, and cyber crimes. Recently, the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology of the Indian Government issued a significant amendment to the Information Technology Act of 2000. This amendment, announced on September 26, 2022, updates the First Schedule of the Act, which enumerates transactions that were previously exempt from electronic execution. These recent changes to the First Schedule of the IT Act have broadened the scope of electronic transactions within India.

Industrial (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951:

The Industrial (Development and Regulation) Act of 1951 has undergone liberalization in accordance with the New Industrial Policy established on July 24, 1991. Consequently, all industrial enterprises are exempt from licensing, with the exception of specific industries such as the distillation and brewing of alcoholic beverages, the production of cigars and cigarettes from tobacco and manufactured tobacco substitutes, various types of electronic aerospace and defense equipment, industrial explosives including detonating fuses, safety fuses, gunpowder, nitrocellulose, matches, as well as hazardous chemicals and those designated for the small-scale sector. An industrial enterprise that qualifies for licensing exemption must submit an Industrial Entrepreneurs Memorandum ("IEM") to the Secretariat for Industrial Assistance, which is part of the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion under the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India. No additional approvals are necessary.

The Indian Stamp Act, 1899:

According to the Indian Stamp Act of 1899, stamp duty is required for instruments that demonstrate the transfer, creation, or extinguishment of any right, title, or interest in immovable property. Stamp duty must be remitted for all instruments outlined in the Stamp Act, at the rates detailed in the schedules of the Act. The rates applicable for stamp duty on instruments subject to duty differ from one state to another. Instruments that are subject to duty under the Stamp Act but are not properly stamped cannot be accepted in court as evidence of the transaction they represent, and the Act also stipulates the impounding of instruments that are either insufficiently stamped or completely unstamped.

Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996:

In order to consolidate and revise the legislation concerning domestic arbitration, international commercial arbitration, the enforcement of foreign arbitral awards, and to establish a legal framework for conciliation and related issues, a new statute known as the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 has been enacted. This new law is founded on the model law for International Commercial Arbitration developed by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL). The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is designed to enhance the arbitration process and promote conciliation in commercial disputes. The Act acknowledges the independence of the parties involved in the arbitration proceedings conducted by the arbitral tribunal, eliminating the possibility of judicial review of the award and reducing the supervisory function of the Courts. Furthermore, the autonomy of the arbitral tribunal has been reinforced by granting them the authority to determine jurisdiction and to address objections concerning the existence or validity of the arbitration agreement.

Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023:

BNS stands for Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023. It represents India's new criminal law code, which has superseded the Indian Penal Code (IPC) of 1860, originally established during the period of British governance. The primary objective of BNS is to modernize and Indianize the criminal justice system. This extensive criminal code was enacted by the Indian Parliament in 2023. It officially took effect on 1 July 2024, replacing the Indian Penal Code that had been in place for 160 years. The code emphasizes prompt justice, the rights of victims, and addresses crimes relevant to the digital age.

Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita Act, 2023:

The Bharatiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS) aims to supersede the Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 (CrPC). The CrPC outlines the procedures for arrest, prosecution, and bail. BNSS requires forensic investigations for offenses that carry a penalty of seven years of imprisonment or more. Forensic specialists will be dispatched to crime scenes to gather forensic evidence and document the process. All trials, inquiries, and proceedings may be conducted electronically. The presentation of electronic communication devices, which are likely to hold digital evidence, will be permitted for investigation, inquiry, or trial. In cases where a proclaimed offender has fled to avoid trial and there is no immediate chance of apprehending him, the trial may proceed and a judgment may be delivered in his absence. In addition to specimen signatures or handwriting, fingerprint impressions and voice samples may be obtained for investigation or proceedings. Samples may also be collected from individuals who have not been arrested.

Bhartiya Sakshya Adhinyam Act, 2023:

The Bharatiya Sakshya Adhinyam, 2023 (BSA), which was introduced on August 11, 2023, supersedes the Indian Evidence Act of 1872 in order to modernize the evidentiary framework in India. The BSA expands the definition of electronic evidence, simplifies the rules for admissibility, and fortifies protections against tampering. By emphasizing reliability, transparency, and the adaptation of technology, the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhinyam, 2023 seeks to streamline judicial processes and improve the efficiency of India's legal system.

BUSINESS AND / OR KEY INDUSTRY AND/OR TRADE RELATED LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Factories Act, 1948:

The Factories Act of 1948, which was modified by the Factories (Amendment) Act of 1987, played a crucial role in shaping national policies in India regarding occupational safety and health within factories and docks. This legislation addresses numerous issues related to safety, health, efficiency, and the overall well-being of individuals in the workplace. Subsequently, it was succeeded by the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code of 2020.

Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, As Amended (The "CLRA Act"):

The Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970 (CLRA Act) regulates the use of contract labour across various establishments, aiming to control its employment in certain situations while abolishing it in others. This legislation is enforced through both central and state regulations and is overseen by the respective central and state authorities. According to this Act, a contract worker is employed for a defined period through an agreement with a contractor, who is tasked with providing labour information to the principal employer. As indirect employees, contract labourers are entitled to daily wages, which are generally aggregated and disbursed on a monthly basis. The main objective of this law is to avert the exploitation of contract labour and to guarantee that they work under safe and dignified conditions.

Central and state advisory boards are responsible for managing the registration process and establishing compliance standards for establishments that hire contract workers. Severe penalties are imposed for any breaches of the Act. This act has been superseded by the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020.

Building and Other Construction Workers' (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996:

This legislation, enacted by the Indian Government, aims to ensure a safe and healthy working environment for individuals involved in construction activities. It oversees the employment and working conditions within the building and other construction sectors, with the objective of providing welfare measures for construction workers. The scope of this act in India is extensive, particularly in a country like India where the construction sector is rapidly expanding, resulting in a significant number of workers engaged in this field. To protect their interests, the existence of this legislation is essential. Each state provides various facilities or initiates welfare schemes for workers holding BOCW cards or those employed in the construction industry. This act has been succeeded by the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020.

Buildings and Other Construction Workers' Welfare Cess Act, 1996:

The Act is relevant to establishments as outlined in the Building & Other Construction Workers' (Regulation of Employment & Condition of Service) Act, 1996. Consequently, the Act is applicable to every establishment that is owned by or under the jurisdiction of the government, any corporate body or firm, an individual, or an association or other group of individuals that employs building workers for any building and other construction activities. This includes establishments owned by contractors that employ, or have employed at any point in the last 12 months, 10 or more building workers for any building or other construction work. However, it does not cover individuals who employ such workers for construction related to their residence, provided the total cost of such construction does not exceed Rs. 10 lakhs. The Act grants the Central Government the authority to set a cess rate not exceeding 2% and not less than 1% of the construction costs incurred by the employer. Accordingly, the Government of India has established a cess rate of 1% of the total construction costs incurred by the employer.

Inter-State Migrant Workmen (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1979:

This legislation was established to govern the service conditions of inter-state labourers within Indian labour law. The primary aim of the Act was to safeguard workers whose services are requested beyond their home states in India. In instances where an employer encounters a deficiency of skills among the locally available workforce, the Act introduced provisions to hire more skilled workers from outside the state. Subsequently, the Act was superseded by the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020.

Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020:

The Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020 was granted assent by the President of India on September 28, 2020; however, the official gazette has yet to announce the date when it will come into effect. This Code aims to incorporate certain existing legislations and replaces 13 outdated central labour laws, which include the Factories Act of 1948, the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act of 1970, the Inter-State Migrant Workmen (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act of 1979, and the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act of 1996. The provisions outlined in this Code will become effective on a date that will be specified by the Central Government.

Consumer Protection Act, 2019 (the "Consumer Protection Act") and the rules made thereunder:

The Consumer Protection Act, which supersedes the Consumer Protection Act of 1986, was formulated and enacted to facilitate easier and faster access to the resolution of consumer complaints. It aims, among other things, to promote and safeguard the interests of consumers against deficiencies and defects in goods or services, as well as to uphold consumer rights against unfair trade practices that may be employed by manufacturers, service providers, and traders. The term "consumer" as defined in the Consumer Protection Act encompasses individuals engaged in offline or online transactions through electronic means, tele-shopping, direct selling, or multi-level marketing. The Act establishes consumer dispute redressal forums and commissions specifically for addressing consumer grievances. In addition to granting compensation and/or issuing corrective orders, these forums and commissions are authorized under the Consumer Protection Act to impose penalties, including imprisonment for up to two years and fines that may reach ten lakhs, in cases involving misleading and false advertisements. Section 94 of the Consumer Protection Act of 2019 addresses measures aimed at preventing unfair trade practices in e-commerce, direct selling, and similar areas. It stipulates that, in order to prevent such practices and to protect the interests and rights of consumers, the Central Government may implement necessary measures in the prescribed manner.

TAX RELATED REGULATIONS

Income Tax Act, 1961:

The Income Tax Act of 1961 comprises a comprehensive framework of rules and regulations that oversee the imposition, management, collection, and recovery of income taxes within India. This Act consists of 298 sections and 23 chapters, addressing all facets of taxation. The Income Tax Act, 1961 is applicable to all Domestic and Foreign Companies whose income is subject to taxation under the provisions of this Act or the Rules established under it, contingent upon their "Residential Status" and the "Type of Income" involved. According to Section 139(1), every Company is mandated to submit its Income Tax return for each Previous Year by October 30 of the Assessment Year. Additionally, other compliance requirements, such as those related to Tax Deduction at Source, Advance Tax, Minimum Alternative Tax, and similar obligations, must also be fulfilled by every Company. The updated Income-tax Bill of 2025 was presented on 11 August 2025 after the retraction of a previous version that was introduced in February 2025, and it was enacted into law after obtaining Presidential approval on 21 August 2025.

Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017:

The Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 ("CGST Act") governs the imposition and collection of tax on the intra-State supply of goods and services by either the Central Government or State Governments. The CGST Act consolidates numerous Central and State taxes into a unified tax system. It requires every supplier of goods or services to register within the State or Union Territory where they operate, within 30 days from the date they become liable for such registration. These registrations may be modified or revoked by the appropriate authority upon receiving an application from the registered individual or their legal representatives. The GST rates imposed may vary depending on the specific goods or services involved. Additionally, the Company is also subject to the Gujarat Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017, which pertains to the levy and collection of tax on the intra-State supply of goods and services or both.

Integrated Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017:

The Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act of 2017 (referred to as the "IGST Act") is a Central legislation established to impose a tax on the supply of goods and/or services during inter-State trade or commerce. The Centre is responsible for levying and collecting the IGST on interstate supplies. This Act outlines the regulations for determining the place of supply of goods. In cases where the supply involves the movement of goods, the place of supply is defined as the location of the goods at the point when their movement concludes for delivery to the recipient. Additionally, the IGST Act stipulates the criteria for determining the place of supply of services when both the supplier and recipient are situated within India, or when either the supplier or recipient is located outside of India. The provisions concerning assessment, audit, valuation, time of supply, invoicing, accounting, record-keeping, adjudication, and appeals, as specified in the CGST Act, are also applicable to the IGST Act.

Customs Act, 1962 and the Customs Tariff Act, 1975:

The regulations outlined in the Customs Act of 1962 and the associated rules are relevant during the importation of goods, which refers to bringing items into India from abroad, as well as during the exportation of goods, meaning taking items out of India to foreign destinations. Any company wishing to import or export goods must first register and obtain an Importer Exporter Code (IEC). Imported goods in India are subject to basic customs duty, additional customs duty, and education cess. The rates for basic customs duty are defined in the Customs Tariff Act of 1975. Customs duty is assessed based on the transaction value of the goods. The administration of customs duties falls under the jurisdiction of the Central Board of Excise and Customs, which operates within the Ministry of Finance. The Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs periodically issues Circulars, Notifications, Guidelines, Instructions, and orders to regulate imports and exports.

Gujarat State Tax on Professions, Trades, Callings and Employments Act, 1976:

The professional tax brackets in India apply to citizens engaged in any profession or trade. Each State Government is authorized to design and establish the relevant professional tax regulations and is also tasked with the collection of professional tax revenues. Professional taxes are levied on individual incomes, business profits, or vocational gains. This tax is imposed in accordance with List II of the Constitution. In India, professional tax is categorized into various tax brackets. Any individual earning a salary or wage is subject to a tax deduction by their employer from the salary or wages due before payment is made. Furthermore, the employer is responsible for remitting the tax on behalf of the employee, regardless of whether the deduction has been executed at the time of salary or wage disbursement. Additionally, the employer must register with the assessing authority in the prescribed manner.

ENVIRONMENT LAWS

National Environmental Policy, 2006:

The Policy aims to broaden the coverage and address existing gaps, taking into account current knowledge and accumulated experience. This policy was developed through a thorough consultation process within the Government and contributions from experts. It does not replace but rather builds upon previous policies. It represents India's dedication to positively contributing to international initiatives. This is a response to our national obligation to maintain a clean environment, as mandated by the Constitution in Articles 48 A and 51 A (g), and reinforced by judicial interpretations of Article 21. The central theme of this policy is that while the conservation of environmental resources is essential for securing the livelihoods and well-being of all, the most effective foundation for conservation is to ensure that individuals reliant on specific resources achieve better livelihoods through conservation than through resource degradation. The objectives of the National Environmental Policy are as follows:—

- Conservation of Critical Environmental Resources
- Intra-generational Equity: Livelihood Security for the Poor
- Inter-generational Equity
- Integration of Environmental Concerns in Economic and Social Development
- Efficiency in Environmental Resource Use
- Environmental Governance
- Enhancement of resources for Environmental Conservation

Environmental Legislations:

The Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981 (referred to as the "Air Act") and the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974 (referred to as the "Water Act") are designed to prevent, control, and mitigate pollution. According to the Air Act, no individual may establish or operate any industrial facility that emits air pollutants within an air pollution control area, as designated by the state pollution control board, without obtaining prior written consent from the appropriate state pollution control board. The Water Act is focused on preventing and controlling water pollution, as well as maintaining or restoring the purity of water. Any individual planning to set up an industry, operation, or process, or any treatment and disposal system that may discharge sewage or other pollutants into a water body must secure prior consent from the relevant state pollution control board. The Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980 ("FCA"), in conjunction with the Forest (Conservation) Rules, 2003, aims to protect forest land and imposes restrictions on deforestation and the use of forest land for non-forest purposes. It mandates that prior approval be obtained for any use of forest land for non-forest activities. The Environment (Protection) Act, 1986, along with the Environment (Protection) Rules, 1986, seeks to safeguard and enhance the environment. It establishes regulations for the prevention, control, and reduction of environmental pollution and imposes responsibilities for the proper handling, storage, treatment, transportation, and disposal of hazardous waste.

Environment Impact Assessment Notification of 2006:

The Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change issued the Environment Impact Assessment Notification in September 2006. This notification requires that numerous projects obtain environmental clearance.

REGULATIONS RELATED TO FOREIGN TRADE AND INVESTMENT

The Foreign Direct Investment:

The Government of India periodically issues policy statements regarding Foreign Direct Investment ("FDI") through press notes and press releases. The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), which is part of the Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India, communicates policy decisions on FDI via the Consolidated FDI Policy Circular, Press Notes, and Press Releases. These are officially notified by the Department of Economic Affairs (DEA), Ministry of Finance, Government of India, as amendments to the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-Debt Instruments) Rules, 2019, under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (42 of 1999) (FEMA). DPIIT has published the consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2020 ("FDI Policy 2020"), which, effective from October 15, 2020, consolidates and replaces all prior press notes, press releases, and clarifications regarding FDI Policy that were in effect. The Government intends to revise the consolidated circular on FDI policy annually, thus, FDI Policy 2020 will remain in effect until a new circular is released. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) specifies the reporting obligations for any investment in India by individuals residing outside the country under the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-Debt Instruments) Rules, 2019. Regulation 4 of the Foreign Exchange Management (Mode of Payment and Reporting of Non-Debt Instruments) Regulations, 2019, as per notification No. FEMA. 395/2019-RB dated 17.10.2019 issued by the RBI, outlines the reporting requirements for investments in India by non-residents. All reporting must be conducted through the Single Master Form (SMF), which is accessible on the Foreign Investment Reporting and Management System (FIRMS) platform at <https://firms.rbi.org.in>. According to the current FDI Policy of 2020, foreign direct investment in micro and small enterprises is regulated by sectoral caps, entry routes, and other sector-specific regulations.

Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (“FEMA”) and Regulations framed thereunder:

Foreign investment in India is primarily regulated by the provisions of the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA), which pertains to oversight mainly by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), along with the associated rules, regulations, and notifications, as well as the policies established by the Department of Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, under the Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India. According to the FEMA Regulations, no prior consents or approvals are necessary from the Reserve Bank of India for Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) under the ‘automatic route’ within the defined sectoral caps. For industries not categorized as FDI under the automatic route, or for investments exceeding the specified sectoral limits under this route, approval may be required from the Foreign Investment Facilitation (FIF) and/or the RBI. The RBI, exercising its authority under the FEMA, has issued the Foreign Exchange Management (Transfer or Issue of Security by a Person Resident Outside India) Regulations, 2017 (referred to as “FEMA Regulations”) to prohibit, restrict, or regulate the transfer or issuance of securities to individuals residing outside India, as well as the Foreign Exchange Management (Export of Goods and Services) Regulations, 2015, which govern the export of goods and services.

Ownership restrictions of FIIs:

Under the portfolio investment scheme, the cumulative holding of all Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) along with their sub-accounts in an Indian company is limited to 24% of the company's paid-up capital. This limit may be raised to align with the sectoral cap on Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) applicable to the company, contingent upon a resolution passed by the company's board of directors and the endorsement of the shareholders through a special resolution during a general meeting. Furthermore, the individual holding of each FII, or in instances where an FII invests on behalf of its sub-account, the holding of each sub-account must not surpass 10% of the total paid-up capital of the company.

Laws related to Overseas Investment by Indian Entities:

Overseas investments made by Indian entities are regulated under the Foreign Exchange Management Act of 1999. Under this Act, the central Government of India has issued the Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Rules, 2022, which supersede the Foreign Exchange Management (Transfer or Issue of Any Foreign Security) Regulations of 2004 and the Foreign Exchange Management (Acquisition and Transfer of Immovable Property Outside India) Regulations of 2015. Following these rules, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has, through notification no. RBI/2022-2023/110, A.P. (DIR Series) Circular No.12 dated August 22, 2022, released the Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Directions, 2022, along with the Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Regulations, 2022. These legislative measures outline the investment parameters, methods, and limits applicable to various sectors and regions for any resident individual in India, as well as the associated reporting obligations.

Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992 (“FTDRA 1992”):

The FTDRA 1992 aims to foster and oversee foreign trade by easing the process of imports into India and enhancing exports from the country. According to the FTDRA 1992, no individual or entity is permitted to engage in exports or imports without having obtained an importer-exporter code number.

Foreign Trade Policy 2023:

The Government of India, utilizing the authority granted by Section 5 of the Foreign Trade (Development & Regulation) Act, 1992 (No. 22 of 1992) FT (D&R) Act, as revised, has announced the Foreign Trade Policy (FTP) 2023, which is effective from April 01, 2023, and will remain in effect unless stated otherwise or modified. This policy establishes a framework concerning the export and import of goods and services.

LAWS RELATED TO EMPLOYMENT OF MANPOWER

The Code on Wages, 2019:

The Code on Wages, 2019 is designed to unify the legislation concerning wages, bonuses, and related matters. It received the approval of the President of India on August 08, 2019. This Code outlines the procedures for establishing minimum wages, setting limits on fines and wage deductions, determining minimum and maximum bonuses, calculating allocable and available surplus, and ensuring gender-neutral considerations in wage determination. The Code empowers the Central Government to establish a "floor wage," below which State governments are prohibited from setting any minimum wage. It consolidates and incorporates four essential labor laws: the Payment of Wages Act, 1936; the Minimum Wages Act, 1948; the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965; and the Equal Remuneration Act, 1976. On December 18, 2020, the Government of India issued a notification to implement certain sections of the Code on Wages, 2019. The remaining provisions of this Code will come into effect on a date to be announced by the Government of India.

The four existing laws are as follows:

- The Payment of Wages Act, 1936:

The Payment of Wages Act, 1936, as amended, has been established to oversee the payment of wages in a specified manner at regular intervals, ensuring that no unauthorized deductions occur, and to provide a prompt and effective remedy for employees facing illegal deductions or unjustified delays in wage payments. This Act is applicable to individuals employed in factories, industrial, or other establishments, whether directly or indirectly through a subcontractor, and it stipulates the imposition of fines and deductions while defining wage periods. The Payment of Wages Act is relevant to factories and industrial or other establishments where the monthly wages do not exceed Rs. 24000.

- The Payment of Bonus Act, 1965:

The Payment of Bonus Act mandates the provision of a minimum bonus to factory workers and all other establishments that employ 20 or more individuals on any given day throughout an accounting year. It also stipulates the necessity for maintaining specific books and registers, as well as the submission of monthly returns that detail the calculation of allocable surplus, along with the set on and set off of allocable surplus and the bonus owed.

- The Equal Remuneration Act, 1976:

The Equal Remuneration Act of 1976, as amended, mandates the provision of equal pay for men and women workers engaged in the same or similar types of work, while also preventing discrimination based on sex against women in employment matters and related issues. According to the Equal Remuneration Act, discrimination in recruitment and service conditions is not allowed, except in cases where the employment of women is legally restricted or prohibited. Furthermore, the Act stipulates that every employer must maintain registers and other relevant documents concerning the workers they employ, in the prescribed manner. This legislation was enacted with the objective of ensuring Equal Pay and Equal Work, as outlined in Article 39 of the Constitution.

- The Minimum Wages Act, 1948:

The Minimum Wages Act of 1948 was enacted with the aim of establishing a minimum wage that employers must pay to their employees. According to the Minimum Wages Act, the relevant government has the authority to determine the minimum wages applicable to individuals employed in both scheduled and non-scheduled jobs. All employers are obligated to compensate their employees with at least the minimum wage for any work performed, whether it is skilled, unskilled, manual, or clerical (including out-workers), in any employment category specified in the schedule of the Minimum Wages Act, for which minimum wage rates have been set or adjusted under the Act.

Industrial Relations Code, 2020:

The Industrial Relations Code, 2020 received the approval of the President of India on September 28, 2020. The Code is designed to simplify the laws governing industrial disputes and trade unions in India. To benefit employers, the Code has introduced several measures, including raising the threshold of workers to three hundred (300) for obtaining government consent in cases of layoffs, retrenchments, or closures of establishments. Additionally, notice of change is not required to be given, provided the conditions outlined in the Code are met, and the wage threshold has been increased to INR 18,000 (Indian Rupees Eighteen Thousand) for exclusion from the definition of a worker, among other provisions. Furthermore, the Industrial Relations Code introduces the notion of deemed certification of standing orders. It aims to consolidate three existing laws: the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Trade Unions Act, 1926, and the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946. The provisions of this Code will take effect on a date to be announced by the Central Government. Currently the laws are as follows:

- Industrial Disputes Act, 1947:

The Industrial Disputes Act of 1947 outlines the procedures for investigating and resolving industrial disputes. In instances where a dispute is present or anticipated, the relevant Government may refer the matter to a labour court, tribunal, or arbitrator, in order to avert the emergence or continuation of the dispute, or a strike or lock-out while proceedings are ongoing. Labour courts and tribunals are empowered to provide suitable relief, which may include the modification of employment contracts or the reinstatement of employees. Additionally, this Act ensures that workers have direct access to labour courts or tribunals for individual disputes and mandates the establishment of grievance settlement mechanisms in any workplace with twenty or more employees.

- Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946:

The Central Government enacted the Standing Orders to establish uniformity in employment terms for industrial establishments with 50 or more employees, aiming to reduce industrial disputes. These Standing Orders are crucial in outlining the employment terms and conditions within an industrial setting. Key features of the Standing Orders include the classification of workers, the method of notifying employees regarding work and wage-related information, attendance policies, leave conditions, termination of employment criteria, and avenues for workers to seek redress in various issues.

- Trade Unions Act, 1926:

The provisions outlined in the Trade Union Act of 1926 stipulate that any conflict arising between employers and employees, between employees themselves, or among employers, which pertains to employment, non-employment, the terms of employment, or the conditions of labor for any individual, shall be classified as a trade dispute. A trade union must be established for each trade dispute. According to the Trade Union Act of 1926, a trade union is defined as a combination, whether temporary or permanent, that is primarily created to regulate the relationships between employees and employers, between employees, or among employers, or to impose restrictions on the conduct of any trade or business, among other purposes.

Code on Social Security, 2020:

The Code on Social Security, 2020 received the approval of the President of India on September 28, 2020. Its purpose is to enhance social security benefits, including provident fund, insurance, and gratuity for workers. It broadens the scope of the Employees' State Insurance Corporation and the Employees' Provident Fund Organization (which oversee benefits such as provident fund, insurance, pension, etc.) to encompass workers in the unorganized sector as well as platform and gig workers. Additionally, the Code specifies gratuity benefits for fixed-term employees without imposing any minimum service period requirement, as is currently mandated. It consolidates nine (9) labor laws related to social security, specifically the Employees' Compensation Act, 1923, the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, the Employment Exchanges (Compulsory Notification of Vacancies) Act, 1959, the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, the Cine-Workers Welfare Fund Act, 1981, the Building and Other Construction Workers' Welfare Cess Act, 1996, and the Unorganized Workers Social Security Act, 2008. The Government of India, via its notification dated April 30, 2021, enacted section 142 of the Code on Social Security, 2020. The remaining provisions of this Code will be implemented on a date to be announced by the Government of India.

- Employee's State Insurance Act, 1948:

The Employees State Insurance Act of 1948 establishes specific benefits for employees in the event of sickness, maternity, and work-related injuries. All employees working in establishments that fall under the purview of the Employees State Insurance Act must be insured, with the employer bearing the responsibility to make requisite contributions accordingly. Employers operating factories and establishments that are governed by the Employees State Insurance Act are mandated to remit contributions to the Employees State Insurance Corporation for each employee, at the rate set by the Central Government, and they must also submit a return of the contributions made to the Employees State Insurance Corporation. Government-controlled companies are exempt from this obligation if their employees receive benefits that are equivalent to or exceed those stipulated by the Employees State Insurance Act. Furthermore, the employer is obligated to register under the Employees State Insurance Act and to maintain the necessary records and registers as prescribed.

- Employee's Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952:

The Employee's Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act applies to any establishment that employs more than 20 individuals, as determined by notifications from the Central Government over time. All establishments governed by this Act must register with the relevant Provident Fund Commissioner. Furthermore, in line with the stipulations of this Act, employers are obligated to contribute a specified percentage of the basic wages, dearness allowances, and any other allowances payable to employees into the employees' provident fund. Employees are also mandated to make an equal contribution to this fund. Under Section 5 of the Employee's Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, the Central Government has established the Employees Provident Scheme, 1952. Additionally, there is an obligation to maintain the required records and registers, as well as to file forms with the appropriate authorities. This Act also outlines penalties for non-compliance with the payment obligations stipulated in the aforementioned schemes. The administration of this Act is carried out by the Government of India through the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO).

- Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972:

The Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 establishes a framework for the disbursement of gratuity to employees working in every factory, mine, oil field, plantation, port, and railway company, as well as in every shop or establishment where ten or more individuals are employed or were employed at any point during the preceding twelve months, along with other establishments as designated by the Central Government periodically. Penalties are imposed for failure to comply with statutory requirements. According to the Gratuity Act, an employee who has maintained continuous service for a duration of five years will qualify for gratuity upon retirement, resignation, superannuation, death, or disablement resulting from an accident or illness. Nevertheless, the right to gratuity in cases of death or disablement is not dependent on the employee having completed five years of continuous service. The Central Government, through notification no. 1420(E) dated 29th March 2018, has increased the gratuity limit under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 from Rs. 10 Lakh to Rs. 20 Lakh, effective from 29th March 2018.

- Employee's Compensation Act, 1923:

The Employees' Compensation Act of 1923 was established with the aim of ensuring that employers provide compensation to workers for injuries sustained due to accidents occurring in the course of their employment, as well as for occupational diseases that lead to death or disability. Under this Act, every employer is obligated to compensate a worker for any personal injury, disability, or loss of life resulting from an accident that arises out of and during the course of employment, with the compensation amount determined by the nature and severity of the injury. Additionally, the Employees' Compensation Act outlines the responsibilities of employers and the penalties for failing to meet these obligations. If an employer does not pay the compensation owed under the Act within one month of the due date, the appointed commissioner may instruct the employer to pay the compensation along with interest and may also impose a penalty. There are distinct methods for calculating or estimating compensation for injuries sustained by employees. Furthermore, employers are required to report any fatal or serious bodily injury experienced by an employee to the Commissioner for Employees' Compensation within seven days of the incident.

The Employees' Pension Scheme, 1995:

The term 'Family pension' as defined by the EPF Act refers to the monthly payment that is regularly disbursed to an individual who is a family member of a participant in the Family Pension Fund, in the event of the participant's death during their reckonable service period. This scheme is applicable to all employees who enroll in the EPF or PF of factories, provided that the employee's age does not exceed 59 years to qualify for membership under this Act. Every employee who is a member of the EPF or PF has the option to join the scheme. The employer is responsible for creating a Family Pension Fund contribution card for all employees who are members of the Fund.

Employees' Deposit Linked Insurance Scheme, 1976:

The Scheme will be managed by the Central Board established under section 6C of the EPF Act. The regulations concerning the recovery of damages for failure to pay contributions, along with the applicable percentage of damages, are specified in Section 8A of the EPF Act. Employers participating in the scheme are required to submit a return in the designated format to the Commissioner within fifteen days following the end of each month. Every employer must present the register and other records to the Commissioner or any authorized officer for inspection periodically. The funds received as the employer's contribution, as well as the Central Government's contribution to the insurance fund, will be deposited into an account referred to as the "Deposit-Linked Insurance Fund Account."

Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986:

The Child Labour (Prohibition & Regulation) Act, 1986, which has been amended periodically, was established to forbid the employment of children under the age of fourteen in certain designated occupations and processes, as well as to regulate their working conditions in other types of employment. No child shall be obligated or allowed to work in any establishment for more hours than those prescribed for that establishment or class of establishments. Each child working in an establishment must be granted a holiday of one full day each week, with the specific day to be determined by the occupier and prominently displayed in a notice at a conspicuous location within the establishment. Furthermore, the occupier is permitted to change the specified day no more than once every three months.

Fire Prevention Laws and The National Building Code of India, 2016:

State governments have implemented legislation aimed at fire prevention and life safety. These laws may apply to our offices and Training Centres, incorporating requirements for building occupiers to ensure fire safety and life-saving measures, securing certification for adherence to fire prevention and life safety standards, and establishing penalties for failure to comply. The National Building Code (NBC) establishes legal regulations that govern the safety of individuals within designated categories of structures, which include public, residential, industrial buildings, and others as outlined in the specified categories. These regulations cover a broad range of essential elements, including, but not limited to, fire safety, disaster management and precautions, as well as accessibility.

The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressed) Act, 2013:

The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 ("SHWW Act") aims to safeguard women in the workplace and to prevent instances of sexual harassment at work. Additionally, the SHWW Act establishes a mechanism for addressing complaints related to this issue. Sexual harassment encompasses one or more of the following actions or behaviours: physical contact and advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually suggestive remarks, the display of pornography, or any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature. The SHWW Act mandates that every employer must form an "Internal Complaints Committee," which must always be chaired by a woman, and every officer and member of this Committee shall serve a term not exceeding three years from the date of their nomination. Furthermore, it stipulates the procedure and timeframe within which a complaint must be submitted to the Internal Complaints Committee, specifically requiring that a written complaint be filed within three months of the last incident. In cases where an establishment has fewer than ten employees, complaints from employees of such establishments, as well as complaints against the employer, shall be directed to the Local Complaints Committee.

Gujarat Shops & Establishments (Regulations of Employment and conditions of service) Act, 2019

In accordance with the local shops and establishment laws that are relevant in the states where these establishments operate, it is mandatory for them to register under the applicable legislations. These laws govern the working conditions and employment practices in shops and commercial establishments, typically outlining requirements related to registration, operational hours, daily and weekly working hours, holidays, leave entitlements, health and safety protocols, and compensation for overtime work.

Apprentices Act, 1961:

The Apprentices Act of 1961, which was introduced as a bill on August 19, 1961, in India, aims to meet the need for skilled craftsmen by offering practical training to technically qualified individuals in various trades. This Act establishes a thorough regulatory framework for apprenticeship training. Its main objective is to deliver hands-on training to apprentices, thereby improving their practical skills and employability. Furthermore, the Act creates a framework for employers to offer apprenticeship training across different trades and outlines the durations of such training.

LAWS RELATING TO INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Intellectual property in India is safeguarded by both common law and statutory provisions. Statutory protections include patent rights under the Patents Act of 1970, copyright rights under the Copyright Act of 1957, and trademark rights under the Trade Marks Act of 1999. These laws establish protections for intellectual property by enforcing civil and criminal liabilities for any infringement. Furthermore, beyond domestic legislation, India is a signatory to various international agreements concerning intellectual property, such as the Patent Cooperation Treaty of 1970, the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property from 1883, the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works from 1886, the Universal Copyright Convention adopted in Geneva in 1952, and the International Convention for the Protection of Performers, Producers of Phonograms, and Broadcasting Organizations from 1961. Additionally, as a member of the World Trade Organization, India is also a party to the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS).

Trade Marks Act, 1999 (“Trade Marks Act”):

The Trademarks Act of 1999 establishes the framework for the application and registration of trademarks in India, granting exclusive rights to various marks such as brands, labels, and headings, while also providing remedies in cases of infringement. Additionally, the Act regulates the statutory protection of trademarks and forbids the registration of deceptively similar trademarks or chemical compounds, among other provisions. A ‘Mark’ can include a word or a coined term, signature, device, letter, numeral, brand, heading, label, or name presented in a specific style, as well as the shape of goods not intended for which the mark is proposed, or any combination thereof, including combinations of colors. Indian legislation allows for the registration of trademarks applicable to both goods and services, and it addresses issues of infringement, falsification, and the fraudulent application for trademarks. According to the provisions of the Trademarks Act, any individual or joint applicants claiming to be the proprietor of a trademark may submit an application for registration to the Trademark Registry, based on either actual use or the intention to use the trademark in the future. Once an application is submitted, the trademark is published in the trademarks journal, and any oppositions are invited. Following a satisfactory resolution of any oppositions, a certificate of registration is issued. Once a trademark registration is granted, it remains valid for a period of 10 years unless it is cancelled. After this period, it may be renewed for additional terms upon the payment of the required renewal fees. If the registration is not renewed, the trademark will lapse, and restoration of the registration will be necessary. The right to utilize a trademark can be exercised by either the registered owner or a registered user. Moreover, following the enactment of the Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 2010 (referred to as the "Trademark Amendment Act"), simultaneous protection of trademarks in India and other nations has been made accessible to both Indian and foreign trademark owners. The Trademark Amendment Act also aims to streamline the legal framework concerning the transfer of trademark ownership through assignment or transmission, aligning Indian trademark law with international standards.

Copyright Act, 1957 and the rules made thereunder:

The Copyright Act of 1957, along with the Copyright Rules of 1958 (collectively referred to as "Copyright Laws"), establishes property rights for specific types of intellectual property, commonly known as works of authorship. These Copyright Laws safeguard the legal rights of the creator of an 'original work' by prohibiting others from reproducing the work in any manner. The intellectual property covered by the Copyright Laws encompasses literary works, dramatic works, musical compositions, artistic creations, cinematographic works, and sound recordings. Various rights, including ownership and economic rights, are granted to the author. These rights include the ability to reproduce the work in any format, distribute copies to the public, perform the work, and offer it for sale or hire. The Copyright Laws impose penalties such as fines, imprisonment, or both for violations, with increased penalties for second or subsequent offenses. Although copyright registration is not mandatory for obtaining or enforcing a copyright on a work that is otherwise eligible for copyright, registration serves as prima facie evidence of the details recorded therein and may facilitate infringement proceedings while minimizing delays related to evidentiary issues. Upon registration, copyright protection for a work lasts for a duration of 60 years following the author's death. Unauthorized reproduction of a copyrighted work for sale or hire, distribution of copies to the public, public performance or exhibition, translation of the work, adaptation of the work, and creation of a cinematographic film based on the work without the copyright owner's consent are all actions that constitute copyright infringement.

Design Act, 2000:

This Act serves to consolidate and revise the legislation concerning the safeguarding of designs. The Design Act functions as a comprehensive legal framework and is of a statutory nature, providing protection for new or original designs against unauthorized reproduction that may result in financial loss to the owner. Upon registration, the owner is granted 'copyrights in design' for a duration of 10 years from the registration date, with the possibility of renewal for an additional five years, provided that the renewal occurs prior to the expiration of the initial 10-year term. The controller is responsible for registering a design under this Act after confirming that the design submitted by an individual claiming ownership is indeed new or original, has not been previously published in any country, and does not contravene public policy or morality. Any clear or deceptive imitation of a registered design, executed without the owner's consent, is deemed illegal. Furthermore, the Act prohibits the importation of any materials that closely resemble a registered design.

Patents Act, 1970:

The Patents Act of 1970, as periodically amended, has been established in India to safeguard inventions. Patents grant exclusive rights to the patent owner, allowing them to create, utilize, implement, distribute, and sell the patented invention. The registration of a patent bestows upon the patentee the exclusive authority to use, manufacture, and market their invention throughout the duration of the patent. In accordance with the TRIPS Agreement, a product patent system with a protection duration of 20 years was introduced in India. This patent system serves to protect inventions via patents. The revised Patents Act characterizes an "inventive step" as a characteristic of an invention that signifies a technical advancement relative to existing knowledge, possesses economic importance, or both, thereby rendering the invention non-obvious to an individual skilled in the relevant field. Any individual asserting to be the genuine and original inventor of the invention, or the assignee of such an inventor, or the legal representative of a deceased individual who was eligible to submit an application immediately prior to their death, is entitled to apply for a patent for the invention.

OTHER GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006 ("MSME Act"):

The MSME Act was established to facilitate the promotion and development of micro, small, and medium enterprises, as well as to enhance their competitiveness. Any individual intending to set up (a) a micro or small enterprise, at their discretion; (b) a medium enterprise that provides or renders services, at their discretion; or (c) a medium enterprise involved in the manufacture or production of goods related to any industry listed in the First Schedule of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act of 1951, must submit a memorandum to the authority designated by either the State Government or the Central Government. The format of the memorandum, the filing procedure, and other related matters will be determined by the Central Government, following the recommendations of the advisory committee. Consequently, exercising this authority under the MSME Act, the Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises issued a notification on September 18, 2015, stating that all micro, small, and medium enterprises are required to file a Udyog Adhaar Memorandum in the specified form and manner outlined in the notification.

State Laws:

We conduct our operations from the state of Gujarat. Consequently, the laws enacted by the state governments are relevant to us within this jurisdiction. These laws encompass, among other things, the Shops and Establishment Act, specifically the Gujarat Shops & Establishments (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 2019, as well as regulations concerning fire prevention and safety measures, along with other local licensing requirements. Additionally, we must obtain various approvals from local authorities, including municipal bodies. The specific approvals needed may differ based on the particular region within Gujarat.

Municipality Laws:

In accordance with the Constitution (Seventy-Fourth Amendment) Act of 1992, the individual state legislatures in India are granted the authority to empower municipalities to execute schemes and carry out functions concerning the matters enumerated in the Twelfth Schedule of the Constitution of India. The various states of India have established laws that authorize municipalities to issue trade licenses for the operation of food establishments, as well as to enforce regulations pertaining to such licenses, including the imposition of penalties for non-compliance.

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of financial statements are consistent with those of previous year.

5. USE OF ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Examples of such estimates include computation of percentage of completion which requires the company to estimate the efforts or costs expended to date as a proportion of the total efforts or costs to be expended, provisions for doubtful debts, income taxes and the useful lives of fixed tangible assets and intangible assets. Accounting estimates can change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as the Management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which the changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

6. DEPRECIATION AND AMORTIZATION

Depreciation on tangible assets is provided on the written down value method over the useful lives of assets prescribed as per Companies Act, 2013. Depreciation for assets purchased/sold during a period is proportionately charged. Intangible assets are amortized over their respective individual estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis, commencing from the date the asset is available to the Company for its use.

7. EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Gratuity: Gratuity liability is defined benefit obligation and is provided for on the basis of an actuarial valuation prepared at the end of each financial year. Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

8. REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the company and the revenue can be reliably measured. Expenses and income, not specifically referred to otherwise, are accounted for on accrual basis. However, in case of expenses related to earlier year debited in previous year, a view is taken consistently that liability for such expenses arises only when the bills/vouchers claiming such expenditure are raised by the concerned parties. Contract charges, Sales and Purchases are stated net off discount, rate differences, returns and claims, if any.

Interest Income: Interest Income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and applicable interest rate

9. BORROWING COSTS

Borrowing cost that are attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as a part of the cost of such assets. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to Profit and Loss account.

10. INCOME TAXES

Provision for current income tax is made in accordance with the Income tax act 1961. Deferred tax liabilities and assets are recognized at substantively enacted tax rates, subject to the consideration of prudence on timing difference, being the difference between taxable incomes and accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods.

11. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Property, Plant and Equipment are stated at the cost of the acquisition, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost of acquisition includes taxes, duties, freight, borrowing costs, if capitalization criteria are met and directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of fixed asset is added to its book value only if it increased the future economic benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses on the existing assets, including day to day repairs and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit or losses for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

12. INVENTORIES

Inventories are valued at cost or net realizable value, whichever is lower. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

13. INVESTMENTS

Long-term investments (excluding investment properties) are carried individually at cost less provision for diminution, other than temporary, in the value of such investments. Current investments are carried individually, at the lower of cost and fair value. Cost of such investments include acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties etc.

14. IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS

The Management periodically assesses using, external and internal sources, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying value of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is higher of the asset's net selling price and value in use, which means the present value of future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and its eventual disposal. An impairment loss for an asset is reversed if, and only if, the reversal can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized. The carrying amount of an asset is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

15. PROVISIONS, CONTINGENT LIABILITIES AND CONTINGENT ASSETS

Provision is recognized when there is a present obligation as a result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Disclosure for contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or present obligation that may, but probably will not require an outflow of resources. No provision is recognized or disclosure for contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation and the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote. Contingent Asset is neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements.

16. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing the net profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The diluted potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value, which is the average market value of the outstanding shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

17. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash and cash on deposit with banks and corporations. The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a remaining maturity at the date of purchase of three months or less and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash to be cash equivalents.

18. CASH FLOW STATEMENT

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

19. PRIOR PERIOD, EXTRAORDINARY AND EXCEPTIONAL ITEMS

Income or Expense that arise from events or transactions that are clearly distinct from the ordinary activities of the company are classified as extraordinary items. Specific disclosure of such transactions is made in the financial statements. Similarly, any external event beyond the control of the company, significantly impacting income or expense is also treated as extraordinary item and disclosed as such. Prior Period items are disclosed separately in the financial statements.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Our company was originally incorporated as a Private Limited Company under the name and style of “Ajwa Projects Private Limited” in accordance with the Companies Act, 1956 pursuant to a Certificate of Incorporation issued by Registrar of Companies, Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Gujarat on March 12, 2011, with the corporate identification number (CIN) being U45200GJ2011PTC064399. Subsequently, our company was converted into Public Limited Company under the Companies Act, 2013 and the name of our Company was changed to “Ajwa Projects Limited” vide a fresh Certificate of Incorporation consequent upon conversion from Private Company to Public Company dated June 27, 2025, bearing Corporate Identification Number U45200GJ2011PLC064399, issued by the Registrar of Companies, Central Processing Centre.

Our Company is engaged in a diversified portfolio of industrial services that span fabrication, piping, erection, pressure equipment, prefabricated structures, maintenance & mechanical services, and civil construction works. Our role begins where we undertake the core execution and manufacturing activities that convert approved plans into functional industrial assets. Through these activities, our Company plays a critical role in creating and sustaining industrial and infrastructure facilities across sectors.

Fabrication forms a central part of our business and constitutes one of the most important areas of our operations. We are engaged in the machining, welding, and assembling of raw materials such as steel and other structural components into finished parts and sections as per client specifications. Our fabrication scope is broad and covers multiple categories of work. In structural fabrication, we manufacture technological frameworks, industrial buildings, girders, heavy modules, platforms, and crane girders that are critical for plant construction and infrastructure projects. In equipment fabrication, our activities include pressure vessels, boilers, heat exchangers, tanks, chimneys, ducts, ladles, and blast furnace components, which are widely used in process industries such as steel, power, oil and gas, and refineries. We also fabricate specialised components such as dish ends, crowns, petals, and customised parts, including diesel engine components for railway applications that require a high degree of precision and strict compliance with industry standards. As fabrication work forms the base for subsequent erection and installation, this area of our operations plays a pivotal role in ensuring the overall readiness, reliability, and quality of the industrial assets delivered by our Company.

We also provide erection services, which constitute an important area of our operations and one of the most critical stages in the industrial project lifecycle. These services cover the on-site installation, alignment, and integration of fabricated structures, equipment, and piping systems, all executed in accordance with client-approved designs and specifications. Erection requires handling and positioning of heavy structures, assembling of large equipment modules, and connecting auxiliary systems, often within complex and high-risk industrial environments. As the final step linking fabrication to operational readiness, this work demands strict adherence to safety norms, precise execution, and careful coordination with other site activities. Through these services, our Company enables the transition of fabricated components into stable, functional, and compliant industrial assets, thereby playing a vital role in the completion and commissioning of projects across sectors such as oil & gas, refineries, power plants, steel plants, bridges, and large infrastructure works. Erection is not only about placing components but about ensuring stability, safety, and operational readiness. Any gap at this stage can delay or disrupt an entire project, making it one of the most sensitive and high-responsibility activities in the lifecycle of industrial facilities.

In addition to fabrication and erection services, our Company also undertakes civil construction works. Our scope in civil construction includes site preparation, earthworks, concreting, foundations for heavy machinery, superstructures for industrial facilities, factory buildings, silos, tanks, and other supporting works required for plant and infrastructure development.

In Piping services, we undertake the fabrication and erection of process and utility piping networks covering systems for fluids, gases, steam, and chemicals as per client requirements. Our scope includes not only the erection of pipelines but also, where required, the manufacturing of pipes from raw materials, followed by welding, fitting, and assembling into functional sections. These piping systems are then installed and aligned on-site to integrate with plant layouts and connect with critical equipment. This ensures proper flow, safety, and uninterrupted operations in industries such as refineries, power plants, chemical complexes, steel facilities, and other process-driven units.

Pressure equipment construction and installation is also part of our scope. We fabricate, assemble, and erect heavy-duty vessels, tanks, and related equipment for sectors such as oil & gas, refineries, steel, and power. Given the high-risk applications of such equipment, we also provide ongoing maintenance, repair, and lifecycle services to ensure operational safety and compliance with technical standards.

Our Company provides prefabricated structural solutions for a range of applications. These include modular buildings for industrial and commercial use, portable industrial units for temporary site requirements, and customised enclosures tailored to client specifications. Prefabricated solutions allow quicker deployment, flexibility of use, and efficient resource management, particularly for remote or time-sensitive projects.

Alongside, Our Company also undertakes maintenance and mechanical services which provide long-term support to operating facilities. These include preventive and corrective maintenance of equipment, calibration of pressure safety valves (PSV), non-destructive testing (NDT) to detect faults and ensure integrity, sandblasting and industrial painting for corrosion protection, and support during planned shutdowns and turnarounds. These services are designed to reduce downtime, extend asset life, and support safe operations in industrial plants.

Over the years, we have executed assignments across a diverse project base. This includes bridge construction works, cement and fertilizer plants, chemical industry projects, solar and aluminium facilities, factory building projects, hydrocarbon and refinery projects, power plant installations, steel plant works, tanks and silo construction, and pressure vessel fabrication jobs.

We cater to a wide range of industries such as oil & gas, petrochemicals, refineries, power generation, steel, heavy metals, cement, nuclear power, bridges, metro rail, bullet train infrastructure, and other industrial and infrastructure projects. This sectoral diversity allows us to participate in projects of national importance and contribute to the industrial ecosystem.

As of date, our Company employs 557 personnel, including skilled, semi-skilled, and supervisory staff. Our workforce is deployed both at our fabrication facilities and at client project sites. This manpower base enables us to handle projects of varying size and complexity while maintaining quality and safety standards across multiple locations.

By undertaking fabrication, erection, piping, prefabricated structures, pressure equipment, maintenance, and civil construction works, our Company participates across multiple stages of the industrial project lifecycle. From building structural foundations to delivering operational readiness, we contribute both to the creation of new assets and to the sustained operation of existing industrial and infrastructure facilities.

SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENTS SUBSEQUENT TO LAST AUDITED BALANCE SHEET

Subsequent to the date of the last audited financial statements, i.e., June 30, 2025, the Board of Directors confirms that, except for the restructuring of the Company's existing unsecured loan portfolio—including the extinguishment of multiple loans and the consolidation into a single facility from a new NBFC—as well as the acquisition of an additional inventory financing facility, there have been no other material events or developments that may have a significant impact on the financial position of the Company.

FACTORS AFFECTING OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Our business operations, financial condition and results of operations have been and are expected to be, influenced by a range of factors. Set forth below is a summary of the most important factors that have had and that we expect will continue to have, a significant impact on our business, results of operations, cash flow and financial condition:

1. Revenue from Execution of Projects

Our revenues are primarily derived from the execution of construction, fabrication and infrastructure projects. The quantum and timing of revenue recognition is dependent on project milestones, billing schedules, and the pace of work progress. Any delay in execution, postponement by clients, or early termination of contracts can result in a mismatch between projected and actual revenues. Further, seasonal factors such as monsoons and adverse weather conditions often affect the pace of project execution, thereby impacting revenues in certain quarters.

2. Cost of Raw Materials and Inputs

The profitability of our operations is significantly affected by the cost of raw materials such as cement, steel, aggregates, fuel, and other construction inputs. These costs are subject to market price fluctuations influenced by demand-supply imbalances, inflationary trends, and global commodity prices. While some of our contracts provide for cost escalation clauses, others are fixed-price in nature. In such cases, a steep rise in input costs could reduce margins and adversely affect profitability.

3. Government Policies and Regulatory Framework

Our industry is closely linked with infrastructure spending and policies of the Government of India and state governments. Changes in allocation of budgets for infrastructure, urban development policies, taxation, labor laws, or environmental clearances can directly affect our business. For example, delays in receipt of approvals, changes in GST rates, or introduction of new compliance requirements could increase costs and timelines, thereby affecting our results of operations.

4. Availability and Cost of Capital

We operate in a working-capital-intensive industry where timely availability of funds is crucial for project execution. Our financial results are affected by the cost of borrowing, prevailing interest rates, and our ability to secure credit facilities for project tenders. Any adverse movements in interest rates or tightening of credit conditions in the financial markets may increase our finance costs and reduce profitability.

5. Operational Efficiency and Project Management

Efficient project management is essential to maintain profitability. Any delay in procurement of materials, mobilization of manpower, or deployment of machinery can result in cost overruns and liquidated damages. Our ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously, across geographies, and within stipulated timelines has a direct bearing on our operating margins. Conversely, strong execution capabilities and efficient cost control can lead to improved margins and enhanced client satisfaction.

6. Human Resources and Labor Costs

Our operations are manpower-intensive and require skilled engineers, supervisors, and laborers. Availability of trained personnel, retention of key management, and labor relations affect our ability to execute projects efficiently. Increases in wage levels, implementation of new labor regulations, or disputes with workers could increase operating costs and adversely impact profitability.

7. Technological Developments

The construction industry is evolving with the adoption of modern construction methodologies, automation, and technology-driven project management. Timely investment in new technologies and equipment enhances productivity and operational efficiency. Our inability to adopt such advancements or maintain modern equipment could impair our competitiveness. Conversely, successful adoption of advanced practices improves quality, reduces execution timelines, and strengthens margins.

PRINCIPAL COMPONENTS OF STATEMENT OF PROFIT OR LOSS

Set forth below are the principal components of statement of profit and loss from our operations:

TOTAL INCOME

Our total income comprises of (i) Revenue from Operations; and (ii) Other Income.

- Revenue from Operations

Revenue from operations stood at ₹ 1,212.08 lakhs (99.79%), ₹ 3,673.11 lakhs (99.63%), ₹ 3,426.54 lakhs (99.66%) and ₹ 2,874.60 lakhs (99.80%) for the periods ended June 30, 2025, March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, respectively. The movement reflects project-wise billing cycles, stage-wise completion, and execution pace across ongoing infrastructure projects.

The consistent year-on-year growth in revenue demonstrates the Company's strong operational capabilities and its ability to secure and execute a diversified portfolio of projects in the infrastructure and civil construction domain.

- Other Income

Other income amounted to ₹ 2.56 lakhs (0.21%), ₹ 13.75 lakhs (0.37%), ₹ 11.72 lakhs (0.34%) and ₹ 5.65 lakhs (0.20%) for the corresponding periods. The marginal variation relates mainly to interest on surplus funds and incidental receipts.

TOTAL EXPENSE

Our expenses comprise of: (i) Cost of Materials Consumed; (ii) Change in Inventories of Finished Goods and Work in Progress; (iii) Employee Benefits Expense; (iv) Finance Costs; (v) Depreciation and Amortization expense; and (vi) Other Expenses. Total expenses increased from ₹2,781.44 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to ₹3,027.14 lakhs in FY 2023–24 and further to ₹3,146.27 lakhs in FY 2024–25 and ₹1,028.99 lakhs in Q1 2025-26, reflecting business scale-up.

- Cost of Materials Consumed

The expense stood at ₹481.22 lakhs (39.62%), ₹426.95 lakhs (11.58%), ₹612.99 lakhs (17.83%), and ₹338.35 lakhs (11.75%). The higher material cost in the quarter ended June 2025 is due to peak procurement in large ongoing projects, whereas FY 2024-25 reflected balanced utilisation following earlier inventory buildup.

- Change in Inventories of Finished Goods and Work-in-Progress

This represents movement in unbilled work executed but not yet invoiced. The changes amounted to ₹49.37 lakhs (4.06%), ₹191.37 lakhs (5.19%), (₹267.96 lakhs) (-7.79%), and ₹68.28 lakhs (2.37%). - Finance Costs

Finance costs primarily comprise interest on working capital borrowings, term loans, and other financial charges. The finance cost stood at ₹39.64 lakhs (3.26%), ₹166.69 lakhs (4.52%), ₹140.87 lakhs (4.10%), and ₹80.94 lakhs (2.81%) for the respective periods. This increase was mainly attributable to intensified project activity, procurement of key construction materials such as cement and steel, and execution of material-intensive contracts during the year.

As a proportion of total income, this cost increased from 11.75% in FY 2022–23 to 17.83% in FY 2023–24, reflecting higher material utilization due to expanded project operations and delivery timelines concentrated toward year-end.

- Changes in inventories of finished goods and Work-in-progress

The line item Changes in Inventories of Finished Goods and Work-in-Progress showed a major variation—from an increase of ₹68.28 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to a decrease of ₹(267.96) lakhs in FY 2023–24.

This movement indicates that during FY 2023–24, the Company utilized a substantial portion of existing work-in-progress inventory, leading to higher cost recognition in the period. As a percentage of total income, the ratio moved from 2.37% in FY 2022–23 to -7.79% in FY 2023–24, reflecting active execution and lower closing inventory levels as projects progressed toward completion.

- Employee benefits expense

Employee Benefits Expense increased from ₹1,721.40 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to ₹2,127.20 lakhs in FY 2023–24, a rise of 23.58%. The increase was primarily due to higher manpower requirements in line with increased project workload, annual increments, and recruitment of technical and supervisory staff.

As a proportion of total income, employee costs rose from 59.77% in FY 2022–23 to 61.87% in FY 2023–24, indicating a greater contribution from human resource-intensive project management services. Employee costs mainly consist of salaries and wages, bonus, contributions to provident fund and ESI, gratuity, directors' remuneration, and other staff welfare expenses.

- Finance costs

Finance Costs increased from ₹80.94 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to ₹140.87 lakhs in FY 2023–24, an increase of 73.99%. The rise was mainly on account of higher working capital utilization and short-term borrowings to fund the expansion of project operations and bridge timing differences between receivables and payables.

As a percentage of total income, finance costs increased from 2.81% to 4.10%, reflecting the temporary rise in debt usage to support business growth.

- Depreciation and amortization expense

Depreciation and Amortization Expense increased from ₹20.43 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to ₹27.55 lakhs in FY 2023–24, marking a growth of 34.86%. The increase is primarily attributed to additions to fixed assets and capital expenditure on machinery and equipment for ongoing projects.

As a percentage of total income, depreciation remained stable at ~0.8%, indicating proportionate growth of the fixed asset base with overall business expansion.

- Other expenses

Other Expenses decreased from ₹551.04 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to ₹386.48 lakhs in FY 2023–24, showing a decline of 29.86%. The reduction was mainly due to better cost control measures, rationalization of administrative and overhead expenses and improved operational efficiency.

As a percentage of total income, other expenses decreased significantly from 19.13% in FY 2022–23 to 11.24% in FY 2023–24, indicating stronger cost discipline and a shift toward more efficient project execution.

PROFIT BEFORE TAX

Profit Before Tax (PBT) rose significantly from ₹98.81 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to ₹411.12 lakhs in FY 2023–24, an increase of 316.08%. The improvement was primarily driven by strong revenue growth, lower administrative costs, and higher operational efficiency.

As a proportion of total income, PBT margin improved from 3.43% to 11.96%, underscoring substantial enhancement in profitability and the positive impact of scale and efficiency measures implemented during the year.

TAX

Tax Expense increased from ₹37.81 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to ₹116.52 lakhs in FY 2023–24, a growth of 208.24%, consistent with the higher profitability for the year. The effective tax rate for FY 2023–24 was approximately 28.3%, compared to 38.3% in FY 2022–23, reflecting normalization of deferred tax adjustments and improved profit quality.

PROFIT AFTER TAX

In FY 2023–24, the Company achieved a PAT of ₹294.60 lakhs (8.57%), up sharply from ₹61.01 lakhs (2.12%) in FY 2022–23 — a rise of over 380%. The strong turnaround was led by a 19.4% growth in total income and a notable reduction in the expense ratio from 96.57% to 88.04%, reflecting improved project margins and tighter cost control. Enhanced operational efficiency, better material management, and stable finance costs contributed to higher profitability, resulting in a profit before tax of ₹411.12 lakhs (11.96%) against ₹98.81 lakhs (3.43%) in the previous year.

DISCUSSION ON THE STATEMENT OF CASH FLOWS

The following table sets forth information relating to our Company’s statement of cash flows for the financial years indicated:

Particulars	For the period / year ended on
	June 30, 2025	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Net cash flows generated/ (used in) from operating activities	76.77	422.70	(107.12)	7.71
Net cash flows generated/ (used in) investing activities	(9.16)	(23.23)	(132.56)	(75.35)
Net cash flows generated/ (used in) financing activities	(38.30)	(444.56)	168.75	161.54
Net increase/(decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	29.30	(45.08)	(70.93)	93.90

OPERATING ACTIVITIES

The Company's operating cash flows have shown significant fluctuations across the reporting periods, reflecting changes in profitability, working capital management, and tax outflows. In FY 2022–23, net cash from operating activities stood at a modest ₹7.71 lakhs, primarily due to limited operating profitability (PBT of ₹98.81 lakhs) and working capital buildup, particularly an increase in other assets and short-term advances.

In FY 2023–24, operating cash flow turned negative at ₹(107.12) lakhs, despite higher profitability (PBT of ₹411.12 lakhs), largely due to a substantial increase in inventories and trade receivables, which absorbed cash.

However, a major turnaround was witnessed in FY 2024–25, with net operating cash inflows rising sharply to ₹422.70 lakhs. This improvement was driven by enhanced profitability (PBT of ₹475.38 lakhs), better receivable management, and favorable adjustments in loans and advances and provisions.

By June 30, 2025, operating activities continued to generate positive inflows of ₹76.77 lakhs for the quarter, supported by steady operating profits and efficient management of inventories and trade payables, despite an increase in receivables and a decline in other liabilities. Overall, the consistent recovery in operating cash flows highlights improved efficiency in core operations, better working capital discipline, and a stronger cash-generating ability of the business.

INVESTING ACTIVITIES

The Company's investing activities consistently reflected net cash outflows across all periods, indicative of ongoing investments in fixed assets and long-term projects. In FY 2022–23, net cash used in investing activities amounted to ₹(75.35) lakhs, primarily on account of fixed asset purchases and additions in term deposits for security against working capital loans.

The outflows expanded in FY 2023–24 to ₹(132.56) lakhs, owing to additional capital expenditure and addition in term deposits during the year.

However, in FY 2024–25, the Company has not made any term deposits which reflected curtailed investment spending, resulting in a significantly lower outflow of ₹(23.23) lakhs, reflecting a more conservative and capital-efficient approach.

During the quarter ended June 30, 2025, net investing cash outflow further moderated to ₹(9.16) lakhs, mainly towards limited fixed asset additions of ₹6.86 lakhs and accrued interest portion in term deposits. The declining trend in investing outflows indicates a deliberate shift towards optimizing asset utilization, maintaining liquidity, and focusing on incremental efficiency rather than large-scale capital deployment.

FINANCING ACTIVITIES

Cash flows from financing activities demonstrated a clear transition from reliance on external borrowings toward repayment and deleveraging in recent periods. In FY 2022–23, net financing inflows stood at ₹161.54 lakhs, primarily driven by increased short-term and long-term borrowings, which helped fund operations and investments.

Similarly, FY 2023–24 recorded net inflows of ₹168.75 lakhs, aided by strong short-term borrowing support of ₹165.88 lakhs. However, in FY 2024–25, this trend reversed sharply, with net cash outflows of ₹(444.56) lakhs, reflecting significant repayment of long-term loans ₹190.30 lakhs, reduction in short-term borrowings, and higher interest payments of ₹166.69 lakhs.

The June 30, 2025 quarter continued this deleveraging trajectory, though with a smaller net outflow of ₹(38.30) lakhs, primarily due to a marginal reduction in long-term borrowings offset by short-term borrowing adjustments. The overall financing cash flow trend underscores the Company's strategic focus on reducing debt, strengthening its balance sheet, and lowering interest burden—transitioning from debt-driven growth toward self-sustained financial operations.

PHASED IMPLEMENTATION OF UNIFIED PAYMENTS INTERFACE

SEBI has issued a circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2018/138 dated November 1, 2018 and circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2019/50 dated April 3, 2019 circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2019/76 June 28, 2019, circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2019/85 dated July 26, 2019 and circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 08, 2019 (collectively the "UPI Circulars") in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, the UPI Mechanism has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by IIs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public Offer closure to listing from six working days to up to three working days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circular proposes to introduce and implement the UPI payment mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase has become applicable from January 1, 2019 and will continue till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Individual Investor would also have the option to submit the Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public Offer closure to listing would continue to be six working day.

Phase II: This phase commenced on completion of Phase I, i.e., with effect from July 1, 2019 and was to be continued for a period of three months or launch of five main board public offers, whichever is later. Further, as per the SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019, the UPI Phase II has been extended until March 31, 2020. Further still, as per SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the 272 current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount be continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the Application Form by a Individual Investor through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public Offer closure to listing would continue to be six working days during this phase.

Phase III: Pursuant to SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023, Phase III has been notified, and accordingly the revised timeline of T+3 days has been made applicable in two phases i.e., (i) voluntary for all public issues opening on or after September 1, 2023; and (ii) mandatory on or after December 1, 2023. The Offer shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Circular, once Phase III becomes applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

The Offer is being made under Phase III of the UPI (on a mandatory basis).

Individual investors applying under the Non-Institutional Portion applying for more than ₹200,000 and up to ₹500,000, using the UPI Mechanism, shall provide their UPI ID in the Application Form for applying through Syndicate, sub-syndicate members, Registered Brokers, RTAs or CDPs, or online using the facility of linked online trading, demat and bank account (3 in 1 type accounts), provided by certain brokers.

Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circulars include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful applicants to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – offer LM will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using UPI.

Our Company will be required to appoint one or more of the SCSBs as a Sponsor Bank(s) to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the UPI Investors.

Further, in terms of the UPI Circulars, the payment of processing fees to the SCSBs shall be undertaken pursuant to an application made by the SCSBs to the LM, and such application shall be made only after (i) unblocking of application amounts for each application received by the SCSB has been fully completed, and (ii) applicable compensation relating to investor complaints shall be paid by the SCSB.

For further details, refer to the General Information Document available on the websites of the Stock Exchanges and the LM.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (“FEMA”). While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The government bodies responsible for granting foreign investment approvals are the Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) and Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (“DIPP”).

The Government of India has from time to time made policy pronouncements on FDI through press notes and press releases. The DPIIT issued the Consolidated Foreign Direct Investment Policy notified by the DPIIT File No. 5(2) / 2020-FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020, with effect from October 15, 2020 (the “FDI Policy”), which consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT or the DPIIT that were in force and effect prior to October 15, 2020. The Government of India proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI Policy once every year and therefore, the FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular.

The RBI also issues Master Circular on Foreign Investment in India every year. Presently, FDI in India is being governed by Master Circular on Foreign Investment dated July 01, 2015, as updated from time to time by RBI and Master Direction– Foreign Investment in India (updated up to March 08, 2019). In terms of the Master Circular, an Indian company may issue fresh shares to people resident outside India (who is eligible to make investments in India, for which eligibility criteria are as prescribed). Such fresh issue of shares shall be subject to inter-alia, the pricing guidelines prescribed under the Master Circular and Master Direction. The Indian company making such fresh issue of shares would be subject to the reporting requirements, inter-alia with respect to consideration for issue of shares and also subject to making certain filings including filing of Form FC-GPR.

In case of investment in sectors through Government Route, approval from competent authority as mentioned in Section 4 of the FDI Policy 2020 has to be obtained. The transfer of shares between an Indian resident to a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, subject to fulfilment of certain conditions as specified by DIPP / RBI, from time to time.

As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this Offer and in accordance with the extant FDI guidelines on sectoral caps, pricing guidelines etc. as amended by Reserve bank of India, from time to time. Investors are advised to confirm their eligibility under the relevant laws before investing and / or subsequent purchase or sale transaction in the Equity Shares of our Company. Our Company, the Underwriters and their respective directors, officers, agents, affiliates, and representatives, as applicable, accept no responsibility or liability for advising any investor on whether such investor is eligible to acquire Equity Shares of our Company.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that

- i the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the foreign direct investment policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the Takeover Regulations;
- ii the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI policy; and
- iii the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI / RBI.

Further, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT and the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Amendment Rules, 2020 which came into effect from April 22, 2020, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country (“Restricted Investors”), will require prior approval of the Government, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy and the FEMA Rules. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction / purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Furthermore, on April 22, 2020, the Ministry of Finance, Government of India has also made a similar amendment to the FEMA Rules. Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 2020, a multilateral bank or fund, of which India is a member, shall not be treated as an entity of a particular country nor shall any country be treated as the beneficial owner of the investments of such bank or fund in India.
